US Needs More Informed Citizens, McConnell Avers

Rep. Samuel K. McConnell told more than 100 persons at a Christ Episcopal churchmen's club breakfast here yesterday that what the country needs more than anything is an intelligent citizenry to realize what's going on in the world and the ability to interpret those events.

The US representative from the 13th district of Pennsylvania addressed his remarks to 114 members of Christ Episcopal church who were attending a Corporate Communion breakfast at the church after 8 a. m. mass.

After speaking on the three subjects of taxation, civil defense and the Taft-Hartley act, the congressman wound up his talk by saying: "We are living in times when history is writing the destiny of our world and our country in particular and no written line can be erased."

"What we need more than anything is an intelligent citizenry that will realize what things are going on around them and the ability to interpret those things in the light of the principles upon which the greatness of the country was built and upon which its future greatness depends."

In speaking on the question of taxation, McConnell recounted how at one time, 28 cents out of every tax dollar went to the Federal Government.

"The remainder went to the state and local governments," he said. But now, he went on, 78 cents out of every dollar goes to the Federal Government with the balance going back to those local agencies.

This, he reported, resulted in the great inadequacies of the present school building situation, the overcrowded conditions. It also accounts for the fact that so many of the country's highways, badly in need of repairs and maintenance.

Mother, Son Killed In Auto Accident After Visit in Area

A Birdsboro woman saw her daughter-in-law and 9-year-old nephew for the last time yesterday.

Just hours after Lowell E. Foltz, 28, Millersville, had visited his mother, Mrs. Helen Byrum, Birdsboro, his wife, Marjorie, 27, and his son, Ronald, were dead.

They died from injuries suffered in an automobile accident near Lancaster.

The fatal accident took place at the intersection of Route 222 and the Reamstown-Denver road, four miles north of Ephrata.

Foltz's car was involved in a collision at the intersection with an automobile driven by John Wise, 36, New Holland.

Mrs. Foltz died less than eight hours after she was admitted to Ephrata Community hospital. The son was pronounced dead at the hospital and a twin sister of the dead youth, Maureen, was admitted in critical condition with a fractured skull.

Foltz was admitted with a severely cut head.

HUMILITY BACK IN VOGUE

La Rosa, He's Fine, But...

By NORMAND POIRIER
(Mercury Staff Writer)

Hundreds of Pottstonians turned on their television sets last night to see if Julius La Rosa had really lost his "humility" and if so how he looked without it on.

Not since Ovid penned his love poems around the year one has there been as much discussion about a single emotion as there has been since Arthur Godfrey ditched the dimpled darling of at least a billion teen-agers.

No matter how the Godfrey-La Rosa affair turns out, "humility" is back in vogue.

One restaurant on Route 422 is featuring a "humility hot dog" It doesn't curl up at the ends; just lies flat and flaccid in the role.

A new TV panel show is called "It Pays to Be Humble" in which the contestant who refuses to answer the most questions because it may make him look bright wins Groucho Marx.

Teen-agers, of course, have come to the fore immediately with a new dance called, "The Humble Hop." The only trouble with it so far, though, is that the kids are so darned humble they're afraid to ask one another to dance.

Anyway, the top television fracas of the week prompted a lot of various comments from various Pottstonians.

Some thought La Rosa should have his dimples straightened out. Others though Godfrey was more all wet than his favorite tea bag.

A few said, coldly, "We don't HAVE a television set!"

And one man, when asked what he thought of the Godfrey-La Rosa fight, paused for a minute, then asked, "They walter-wights?"

(Another man said, humbly, "What the — did you wake me to ask that stupid question for, and hung up.)

But in the main, always an uncomfortable place to be, the women seemed to be for little Julius. That is, until their loyalty to Arthur was questioned. At that point, they sort of leaned towards the ballet master.

(It was clearly a case of the mother instinct battling against the romantic-ukulele complex, a not unfamiliar phenomenon to psychologists.)

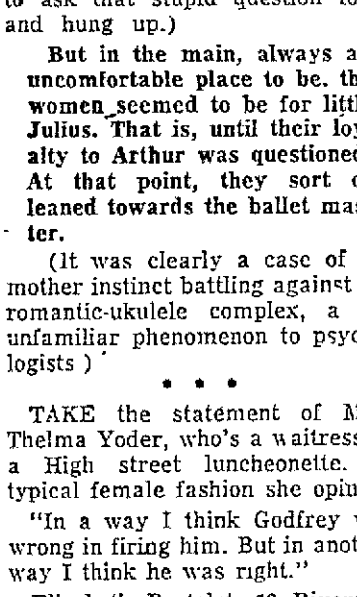

TAKE the statement of Mrs. Thelma Yoder, who's a waitress at a High street luncheonette. In typical female fashion she opined: "In a way I think Godfrey was wrong in firing him. But in another way I think he was right."

Elizabeth Bertollet, 19 Riverside avenue, furthered that thought by saying, "I think it's six of one

RAIN SPRINKLE TEASES HOPES OF FARMERS

Ground Still Hard As Showers Only 'Settle Dust'

HUNTERS WATCH SKIES AS SEASON APPROACHES

Pottstown felt the sprinkle of rain on its face over the weekend, but dismissed it as the false promise of a deceitful flirt.

Farmers, who hoped for a soaking rain to make their land fit for long-delayed plowing, went back to hoping.

Hunters, watching the tinder-dry conditions of the woodlands, feared a repetition of the past year's postponement of the game season.

From all corners, the verdict was that the one-tenth of an inch of rain had only "settled the dust."

THE FIRST DROPS fell shortly before 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon. These grew into a shower a little later on, but the bulk of the rainfall came during the night. Some showers also fell early yesterday morning.

It added up to nothing satisfactory, though.

William Shaver, game protector for the upper 19 townships in Montgomery county, said, "It seemed to wet things down in the woods, but if the sun comes out for the next couple of days it'll be just like it was before. It didn't soak in at all."

"I saw a man digging for fishing worms," Shaver said, "the only dug about an inch and it was dry. Whether opening day of the small game season on Saturday will be postponed depends on whether we get a good rain in the next few days. Unless we get good rain before Friday the season may be postponed."

THE FARMERS' plight was sketched by William Noble, Douglassville, Pa. 1.

"This rain just settled the dust for a little while," he said. "We hope for more. It's impossible to plow and we've got a lot of plowing to do yet."

"We have about half of our grain in. We have winter oats and barley planted, but not much wheat. "If it rains more, we'll seed more. It's getting pretty late, though, and it doesn't look good for next year's crop."

The weekend rain was described in the same terms by John W. Copley, manager of the S. B. Penick and company farm at Oley, Pa. 1.

"It's not enough to do any good at all," Copley said. "We can't get the ground prepared and it's affected the seeding. The grain has

WORKER HOPEFUL

Has the Alarm Here Tooted Its Last Toot?

One of the electricians who does work for the borough hopes he has solved the problem of Pottstown's mysterious fire alarm.

Charles Snyder, Linfield, who with his father, John, takes care of the borough's electrical needs, said last night that he made some repairs on the fire alarm board in borough hall.

When called last night and asked about the problem, the young Snyder gasped: "Why, have you heard it again over the weekend?"

The electrician sighed with relief when he was told that no toots had been reported over the weekend.

"We made some repairs in the board in borough hall and we hoped that would solve it. If we don't hear any more for a few days it'll probably mean that we solved it," he said.

HE EXPLAINED that the huge board in borough hall contains hundreds of wires, relays and other items.

"The trouble was coming from an area bounded by King street to Bailey street, then down Bailey to Queen, Queen to Moser road, then along Industrial avenue. And the Bethlehem Steel area, he added, "that's where the trouble in particular was."

And that's the area on the board where the repairs were made.

"I don't say we solved it," he said. "Not yet, anyway. But we hope we cleared it up. That's why I was surprised when you called about it. I thought you'd heard another toot."

So for the next few days, the electricians will be treading softly, probably tossing in their beds at night, waiting for that next toot, hoping it won't come.

Popeye Proves Tough Customer For Prank Victims

A Mervine road resident violently belted Popeye the sailor man on the seat of his bell-bottoms Saturday night.

But for his proficient and paralyzing punching, Walter A. Heist got only a chorus of laughs from a troupe of young mischief-makers, led by a character called Will Rogers.

"I'll remember this one a long time," he laughed. "You know nobody minds good clean fun on Halloween."

"Everybody out here's gettin' a kick in the pants out of this."

THE FUN BEGAN early Saturday evening.

Heist heard the doorbell ring on his darkened front step. Immediately he thought of Halloween and when he tipped-toed to the window after turning on the outside light, his suspicion was confirmed.

A tall, spindly character about medium height leaned heavily against the door. His face, turned to the side, was disguised behind a Popeye mask.

Heist flung open the door and with the efficiency of a professional wrestler slipped the slumping figure out onto the lawn.

FOR A BRIEF instant he felt proud like a shopkeeper who had just chased a burglar, but then he stumbled out of the doorway into the darkness and the echoing laughter of Will Rogers and a band

SEVEN WILL REMEMBER

Pottstown Kiwanis Club to Mark 30th Anniversary

E. CARLISLE STURGES

Thirty years of memories and achievement will parade through the minds of Pottstown Kiwanians tomorrow night.

It will be the 30th anniversary of the club which began in the days of the automobile crank, the mud road, Jack Dempsey, Calvin Coolidge and moonshine whiskey.

It will be celebrated in the Elks' home at 6:30 o'clock with 175 members and their wives attending the Ladies' Night program.

Speaking at the anniversary will be Robert Lowe Kunzig, counsel for the House Un-American Activities committee, Washington, D. C.

CLUB HISTORY will be best remembered by seven active charter members, B. Frank Christman, E. Carlisle Sturges, Dr. Thomas II Powick, A. Leroy Krause, John G. Ludwick, Eli F. Wismer and E. Gebhart Zollers. Another prominent member, Wilbur O. Cressman, holds the club's perfect attendance mark.

Cressman joined Kiwanis 27 years ago and since then he's racked up that perfect record.

Kiwanis activities today are more numerous than they were 30 years ago.

Underprivileged boys and girls, Boy Scouts, high school agriculture projects, an Easter egg hunt for little boys and girls and an electric train race are sponsored by the borough club.

Biggest and perhaps the best remembered projects of the Pottstown club is the more than $100,000 project at Manatwamy park.

Kiwanians matched dollar for dollar WPA money to improve facilities at the park island during the 1930s.

The biggest phase of the park project was the increase in elevation of the park island between six and seven feet.

Through this project the island was saved from washing down the Manatwamy in the numerous subsequent floods.

Tons of earth were hauled to the site by the Reading company. Two pavilions and tennis courts were constructed on the island and a bridge was built from the east bank of the Manatwamy to the island.

KIWANIANS CURRENTLY plan to erect two bronze plaques and four emblems on the park war memorial.

Each Fall the club helps sponsor the farm and home show at North Coventry High school and each year it backs a capon raising project among school members of the Future Farmers of America.

At a club action each Fall, capons are sold for fancy prices.

Kiwanis work for the underprivileged children includes memberships in the Pottstown YMCA

Romantic Story Is Unfolded by Bedspread Owner

A coincidence stretching over a century and a romantic story in the area's past have been unearthed by the spotlight thrown on antique bedspreads owned by area residents.

It all began with a story in The Mercury telling readers old quilts or bedspreads they own could make news.

One or two were first brought to light and then the affair snow-balled.

In the deluge of woven spreads, including one dating back 107 years, was a bedspread owned by Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Rohland, 39 West Fifth street, Rohland is a borough school director.

THE BED SPREAD is dated 1846 and is marked "Emanuel Meily, Lebanon." On its edge also is marked "J. Rohland," who was the school director's great-grandfather.

A photograph of the spread appeared in the past Friday's edition of The Mercury.

The picture proved especially interesting to Mrs. Arthur Emery, 853 North Franklin street.

Mrs. Emery, a Latin teacher at Pottstown High school where her husband teaches mechanical drawing, was reminded of something familiar in the Rohland bedspread.

She suddenly realized that it was the same name and place that appeared on a bedspread which she owns and which had been passed down to her through her family.

Emanuel Meily, whose name appears on the two pieces, was the weaver of both bedspreads—the Emery spread in 1843 and Rohland's in 1846.

else, and I think if we felt that way more, things would be a lot better all around."

Mrs. Melvin Feroe, co-chairman for residential solicitation, sketched her duties in this phase of the drive.

"We try to line up new workers for door-to-door solicitation and we make calls ourselves. We've visited the North End the past week many of them are new residents, but they were all very happy to have a part in the campaign."

"I'm 100 percent for the campaign."

Popeye Proves Tough Customer For Prank Victims

By ROBERT E. HOYER
(Mercury Staff Writer)

A Mervine road resident violently belted Popeye the sailor man on the seat of his bell-bottoms Saturday night.

But for his proficient and paralyzing punching, Walter A. Heist got only a chorus of laughs from a troupe of young mischief-makers, led by a character called Will Rogers.

"I'll remember this one a long time," he laughed. "You know nobody minds good clean fun on Halloween."

"Everybody out here's getting a kick in the pants out of this."

THE FUN BEGAN early Saturday evening.

Heist heard the doorbell ring on his darkened front step. Immediately he thought of Halloween and when he tiptoed to the window after turning on the outside light, his suspicion was confirmed.

A tall, spindly character about medium height leaned heavily against the door. His face, turned to the side, was disguised behind a Popeye mask.

Heist flung open the door and with the efficiency of a professional wrestler flipped the slumping figure out onto the lawn.

FOR A BRIEF instant he felt proud like a shopkeeper who had just chased a burglar, but then he stumbled out of the doorway into the darkness and the echoing laughter of Will Rogers and a band (Continued on Last Page)

SEVEN WILL REMEMBER

Pottstown Kiwanis Club to Mark 30th Anniversary

E. CARLISLE STURGES

Thirty years of memories and achievement will parade through the minds of Pottstown Kiwanians tomorrow night.

It will be the 30th anniversary of the club which began in the days of the automobile crank, the mud road, Jack Dempsey, Calvin Coolidge and moonshine whiskey.

It will be celebrated in the Elks' home at 6:30 o'clock with 175 members and their wives attending the Ladies' Night program.

Speaking at the anniversary will be Robert Lowe Kunzig, counsel for the House Un-American Activities committee, Washington, D. C.

CLUB HISTORY will be best remembered by seven active charter members. B. Frank Christman, E. Carlisle Sturges, Dr. Thomas H. Powick, A. LeRoy Krause, John G. Ludwick, Eli F. Wismer and E. Gebhart Zollers. Another prominent member, Wilbur O. Cressman, holds the club's perfect attendance mark.

Cressman joined Kiwanis 27 years ago and since then he's racked up that perfect record.

Kiwanis activities today are more numerous than they were 30 years ago.

Underprivileged boys and girls, Boy Scouts, high school agriculture projects, an Easter egg hunt for little boys and girls and an electric train race are sponsored by the borough club.

Biggest and perhaps the best remembered projects of the Pottstown club is the more than $100,000 project at Manatwny park.

Kiwanians matched dollar for dollar WPA money to improve facilities at the park island during the 1930s.

The biggest phase of the park project was the increase in elevation of the park island between six and seven feet.

Through this project the island was saved from washing down the Manatwny in the numerous subsequent floods.

Tons of earth were hauled to the site by the Reading company. Two pavilions and tennis courts were constructed on the island and a bridge was built from the east bank of the Manatwny to the island.

KIWANIANS CURRENTLY plan to erect two bronze plaques and four emblems on the park war memorial.

Each Fall the club helps sponsor the farm and home show at North Coventry High school and each year it backs a capon raising project among school members of the Future Farmers of America.

CUSTODIAL CHIEF RAPS REDS FOR TELLING LIES

Indian General Claims
'Truth Distortions'
On POW Talks

PANMUNJOM, Monday, Oct. 26 (P)—The Commander of Indian custodial forces in the Korean neutral zone yesterday blasted Communist "distortions of truth" in the stalled Red campaign to woo back 22,400 anti-Communist war prisoners.

The statement by Maj. Gen. S. P. P. Thorat, practically calling the Communists liars, undoubtedly was the strongest public protest of a Communist act so far made by the Indians.

The sharp denunciation underscored deteriorating relations in the already shaky Korean armistice program for "explaining" repatriation rights to balking North Korean and Chinese war prisoners.

The Neutral Nations Repatriation commission, in charge of balking POWs in the neutral zone, is deadlocked on whether Indian guard troops shall use force—and how much—to bring defiant anti-Red North Korean prisoners to the Communist "explanations."

CHINESE POWs have attended the interviews, then kicked, cursed and screamed at the Red interviewers.

A critical meeting of the commission, set for 10 a. m. today, was postponed to 3 or 4 p. m. (1 or 2 a. m. Monday Pottstown time).

An Indian spokesman said the delay was to give the commission's two opposing factions more time to study the draft of a statement that may formally split the commission and result in collapse of the prisoner explanation program. Commission members have been studying the draft over the weekend.

Lt. Gen. K. S. Thimayya, Indian chairman of the five-nation commission, was to make public the statement after the meeting if it is approved by the members as written.

If changes are ordered at the meeting there will be a delay in announcement while copies of the amended statement are prepared.

Nixon Warns Reds In First Speech of Far Eastern Tour

SINGAPORE, Oct. 25 (P)—Vice President Richard Nixon said today the United States wants to make it plain that Korean-style Communist aggression against Southern Asia "could have grave consequences."

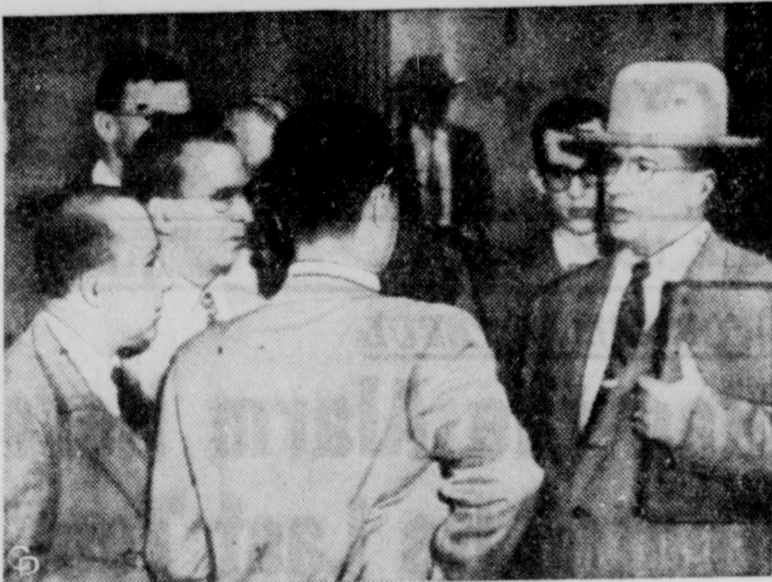

"We hope that the Korean experience," he said, "will convince aggressor nations that the free world are determined to oppose armed aggression by all means at their disposal."

"We also hope that it will persuade them to be as willing as we are to negotiate the basis of a real lasting peace."

Nixon, in remarks prepared for a radio broadcast throughout Malaya on the eighth anniversary of the founding of the United Nations, made his first broadcast against Communist propaganda in Asia, since he began a Far Eastern tour.

"Who are the real friends of the people of Asia?" he asked. "The free nations which have granted independence to millions of Asians, or the Communists who, in Asia as elsewhere in the world, have vastly extended their territories and brought hundreds of millions of persons under their ruthless domination?"

Nixon said the basis of US foreign policy is deep belief "that

SEES 'IMPROVED' PROGRAM—Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson (right) talks to reporters outside the White House after he had conferred for six hours with President Eisenhower and his top aides. Benson said that the Administration would propose an "improved" but not "revolutionary" program to the next Congress in January.

Practical Politicians Assert Benson Needs Attractive Program — or Else

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25 (P)—Farmers over Benson's plan for reorganization of the Agriculture department, particularly over proposed changes in the soil conservation services.

These complaints are coming from good friends of the President in Congress who thus far have not joined the public clamor raised against Benson by some Democrats and a few Republicans.

Such staunch administration supporters as Senator Carlson (R-Kan.) and representative Hope (R-Kan.), chairman of the House Agriculture committee, for instance, apparently have doubts about some of Benson's actions.

Benson is being made much the same kind of target for political attacks as was Secretary of State Dean Acheson in the Truman Administration. While Acheson, always had his public defenders, not as many Republicans are speaking out in Benson's behalf.

Eisenhower undoubtedly wants to keep his secretary of Agriculture. The President praised Benson the past week as a man dedicated to giving all Americans—farmers and consumers alike—a fair break.

EISENHOWER IS being told by legislators who take the leadership on farm bills that they won't be satisfied with anything less than 90 percent props on wheat, corn, cotton, tobacco, rice and peanuts. Many of them want to add other crops to this basic list.

Parity is a price level said by law to give farmers a fair return on their crops in relation to prices they pay for the things they buy.

Eisenhower also is being told that there is unrest among the

President Spends Day At Mountain Retreat

THURMONT, Md., Oct. 25 (P)—President Eisenhower spent a day of complete relaxation at his Catocin mountain cabin retreat today. It was a bright, crisp Autumn day, and a log fire burned in the cabin fireplace.

The President and Mrs. Eisenhower motored up from Washington last night and planned to return to the White House tonight.

As guests they had Mrs. George E. Allen, wife of the former RFC director; Cmdr. Edward L. Beach, naval aide to the President, and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Moore. Mrs. Moore is Mrs. Eisenhower's sister.

Yugoslavia Says Italian Proposal On Troop Withdrawal Is 'Hypocritical'

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia, Oct. 25 (P)—Yugoslavia denounced as "hypocritical" tonight an Italian proposal for mutual withdrawal of troops from the tense Italian-Yugoslav border and indicated President Tito's Government will reject the idea.

The border, about 75 miles long, extends from disputed Trieste on the south to the Alps on the north. Although much of the border is mountainous, there have been reports of heavy troop concentrations at various points on both sides, since the Italian-Yugoslav dispute over which shall get strategic Trieste reached a new peak of tension in recent weeks.

Belgrade radio, quoting the official Tanjug news agency, repeated Italy's disclosure of yesterday that Rome had informed Washington, London, and Paris that the Italian troops would be recalled from the frontier if Yugoslavia would follow suit.

The broadcast said Italy had started massing troops on the frontier in August "without any Yugoslav provocation" and that for the following month and a half, Yugoslavia did not make any similar move.

"But," it added, "when on Oct. 8 the decision to give Italy (the British-American occupied) Zone A of Trieste was announced, the Yugoslav Government termed this an act of aggression and was forced to undertake measures to protect its interests."

(This somewhat modified the original Yugoslav announcement after the Allied decision to evacuate Zone A, when the Belgrade Government said any entry of Italian troops into the zone would be considered an act of aggression.)

THE RADIO quoted a Yugoslav foreign office spokesman as saying the new Italian proposal is "a hypocritical one." It added that the Yugoslav counter-action came only after the situation had changed and "Yugoslav interests were jeopardized." The broadcast quoted the spokesman as saying: "The proposal of the Italian Government is further calculated to cover up the reasons which compelled the Yugoslav Government in October to take precautionary measures."

"These measures came after the decisions of the United States and British Governments to hand Trieste (city) to Italy, which the Italian Government immediately accepted."

"After this a situation was created in which the rights and interests of Yugoslavia were seriously threatened and the Yugoslav Government justifiably characterized this situation as a threat of aggression."

"The proposal made to withdraw troops, although this danger has not been removed from the Italian side, is consequently obviously hypocritical."

While the foreign office and Government-controlled news organs were pouring cold water on the Italian border proposal, Vice President Alexander Rankovic, one of Tito's four top aides, served notice that Yugoslavia will not tolerate Italy's entrance into Trieste "through the back door."

He said Yugoslavia regards a proposal heard in some quarters to let British and American troops remain in the zone while Italy takes over the civilian administration a back door admission of Italy.

SHAH GIVES LAND TO PEASANTS

1600 Sharecroppers
Receives 20 Acres
From Ruler

TEHRAN, Iran, Oct. 25 (P)—Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlavi gave 32,000 acres of his land to 1600 peasants today in a ceremony at his marble palace. Some of the peasants—many in rags—flung themselves on their faces and kissed the Shah's feet as they received the documents making them landowners instead of sharecroppers.

It was a continuation of the Shah's long term policy of turning over crown lands to those who farm them in an effort to wrench Iran's peasantry out of virtual serfdom.

He began distribution of crown lands in March, 1951, and had handed out more than 21,000 acres when Premier Mohammed Mossadeq put a stop to it, presumably at the behest of other wealthy landowners. About 300 families are reported to own or control virtually all the land of Iran. But now that Mossadeq is jailed in disgrace, the land distribution program has been started again.

The lands distributed today are in the rolling Tarkistan area, near Kazvin, in Northwest Iran. The program today was financed by US Point Four funds and the Shah's land agency. Point Four contributed $500,000 and the agency $250,000 for drilling wells and building homes, barns and schools.

Each peasant got his 20 acres on a promise to make a token payment of 450 rials ($14.06) a year for 25 years. At the end of the ceremony, the Shah ordered the new landowners to be his luncheon guests at nearby Red Palace.

Jordan Says Israel Causes New Clash

JERUSALEM, Oct. 25 (P)—Jordan officials charged today that troops of the Arab legion fought a 20-minute battle yesterday with Israeli soldiers within Jordan-held territory north of Tulkarm.

The announcement said an eight-man Israeli patrol crossed the Jordan-Israeli armistice line and that Arab troops opened counter-fire wounding one Israeli. The Israelis retreated with their wounded man, the Jordan officials said.

(An Israeli military spokesman in the Jewish-held new city of Jerusalem said "no Arab-Israeli engagement whatsoever has been reported from this area.")

Tulkarm is about 20 miles north-east of Tel Aviv. The Jordan officials said they had made a formal complaint about the incident to the UN mixed armistice commission.

FBI Arrests 29-Year-Old Blond On False Tip Charge in Kidnap Case

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 25 (P)—The FBI, busy tracing numerous reports and rumors, has taken action apparently designed to discourage future false tips in its search for the missing half of the $600,000 Greenlease ransom money.

J. E. Milnes, special agent in charge of the FBI office here, announced late last night that charges of giving false information to FBI agents would be filed against Mrs. Elizabeth Eleanor Curti, a 29-year-old St. Louisan.

Mrs. Curti, a buxom blond, was seized at a small downtown hotel yesterday. Newspaper reports said she told of hearing a woman acquaintance tell of having seen "a bundle of cash" in a west side apartment.

Assistant US Attorney Herbert H. Freer said Mrs. Curti gave "phony information" on the missing ransom money. He said she shed no light on the whereabouts of the money.

THE ST. LOUIS board of police commissioners, meanwhile, will delay until Wednesday, the day of its regular weekly meeting, action on the resignation of Lt. Louis Shoulters, controversial figure in the arrest of the Greenlease kidnapers.

Shoulters, who had been credited with cracking the kidnap case, submitted his resignation in a surprise move yesterday.

The past week the 55-year-old police veteran had voluntarily appeared for questioning before a panel of police officials investigating possible irregularities in police reports concerning the recovery of $293,000 in ransom money and the arrest of Carl Austin Hall and Mrs. Bonnie Brown Heady, the confessed kidnapers.

It was Shoulters for 27 years a member of the force, who arrested Hall, the confessed killer of 6-year-old Bobby Greenlease, at an apartment hotel here Oct. 6.

In a bitter statement following his resignation, Shoulters told newsmen the police inquiry into the case had destroyed his reputation as an officer.

Terming the board of commissioners "those four-year wonders", Shoulters said he failed to see why the investigation was ordered. "There always are discrepancies in a case like this" he said.

Basic questions in the investigation concern reports that about an hour elapsed between the time of Hall's arrest and the time he was booked, and that the two metal suit cases containing the ransom money were brought to the station sometime after Hall.

Shoulters has denied the suitcases were not brought in with Hall. He told newsmen, however, he "purposely" brought the ransom money to the police station in secret.

"I was trying to protect the (Greenlease) boy," he said. "Hall had told me he was still alive."

Little Bobby, kidnaped from a Kansas city school Sept. 28, was killed the same day in a Kansas field. His body was found in a grave, dug before the kidnaping, behind Mrs. Heady's St. Joseph, Mo., home.

Man Fined for Damage To Policeman's Shorts

HONG KONG, Monday, Oct. 26 (P)—Cyclist Ng Kau paid in court for cutting his corners too close for comfort — the policeman's comfort, that is.

Ng was fined about $5 this weekend for damaging government property.

His bicycle fender ripped the seat of an officer's shorts.

Chief Warns Juveniles on Vandalism

Stern measures will be invoked against persons guilty of destruction of property in Royersford, according to Police Chief Bryson Turner, who already has the names of several juveniles slated for action of Montgomery county juvenile authorities.

In an effort to save others from meeting a like fate, Chief Turner has issued a final appeal to all celebrators and their parents to be guided accordingly between now and the actual celebration of Hallowe'en.

Chief Turner said to the parents: "We have given your children fair warnings in the past few weeks at school against destruction of property and celebrating Hallowe'en before time."

"Oct. 30 is considered 'mischievous night' and we expect children to go about in an orderly manner have, I can only say they will perhaps be eating their Thanksgiving dinner at Montgomery hall, Jeffersonville.

"I am appealing to the public in hopes that I can save others in the future from being sent away to the Juvenile home, where they learn that the laws for youngsters must be obeyed and our preventive measures are given as warnings."

"I have been given permission to put on extra police as a preventive move, and if some parent's child is picked up for destruction in this borough, even on Oct. 30, he or she can expect to be summoned to Juvenile court."

"Parents are to blame for all this destruction going on, and they shall be dealt with along with the child who was let go to run the streets, misbehave and commit barbarous acts."

"To those who have behaved like young ladies and young gentlemen and who are known to me, I want to say thanks to the majority. Royersford has a swell bunch of young folks and especially a very swell group in the Senior class at High school.

"The Sixth grade, too, has given me the faith to believe that someday Royersford shall have citizens to be proud of. Though there may be one or two who may fall by the wayside, I know the majority is trying to carry out the wishes of all good citizens."

Man Gets 30-Day Term For Failing to Pay Fine

Daniel Gauger, 34, no home, was committed to Montgomery county prison, Norristown, for 30 days in default of payment of a fine and costs at a hearing before Justice of the Peace John W. Hunsicker, Royersford, Saturday morning.

He was taken to jail by Police Chief Bryson Turner, after having been arrested shortly before midnight Friday night on a charge of drunk and disorderly conduct.

The cedar siding of this home of Mr. and Mrs. Mac Keller at 995 Park drive (near Adams street) is bamboo-color. Much of the shrubbery at the front, and back, was added by the Kellers after the house was built two years ago by Allen K. Davidheiser Jr., Pottstown

Fire Levels Dairy Barn; 16 Cows, 3 Ponies Saved

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 25 (AP)—Sixteen cows and three ponies were led to safety last night as a spectacular fire leveled a large dairy barn on the farm of the St. Barnabas free home in nearby Richland township.

Damage was unestimated but will run several thousand dollars. The blaze, of unknown origin, destroyed 5000 bales of hay, 2000 bales of straw, 1000 bushels of wheat and 1000 bushels of oats.

CONSTIPATED?

"I can't afford to lose any time at work. But when I was constipated, I just couldn't work because no laxative gave me the relief I wanted."

"Then a friend told me about Sal Hepatica. So I took some the next time I woke up with that headachy, logy feeling due to constipation. And, let me tell you, it was just what I was looking for. Why I felt like my old self again within about an hour!"

Yes, take sparkling Sal Hepatica before breakfast and feel fine again . . . usually within an hour. Or, take it in the evening one-half hour before supper and feel fine again by bedtime! Sweetens sour stomach, too! So keep Sal Hepatica handy in your medicine chest.

THE CONGRESSMAN then switched his talk to the question of civil defense and in so doing shed some light on the recent arguments about whether the Air Force should have received the budget cut that it did under the Republicans.

He reported that at the time the argument broke into the spotlight, the Air Force already had 29 billion dollars of unspent money on its hands.

The Government withdrew five billion from the Air Force and as a result, "many people thought that the Air Force was being undermined."

But, McConnell pointed out, besides the 29 billion the Air Force had left it received another allocation of 11 billion.

"This gave the Air Force a total of 40 billion dollars. Under present production speed, that will last them for the next three years," he said.

He wound up by saying that the Air Force was certainly not undermined or weakened at all by the Republican withdrawal of the five billion.

McCONNELL then launched his explanation of the Republican attitude toward the Taft-Hartley law and the 19 points on the law which the President and the GOP had promised to study and possibly revise.

McConnell explained that many meetings had been held among the top Republicans including the late Senator Taft and that great progress was being made on the proposed changes.

But the progress was brought to an abrupt halt by the unexpected death of the senator.

Some Government leaders have felt that Eisenhower has not been living up to his campaign promises and this was one of the issues.

But, McConnell said, the Administration was living up to them. The promised revisions in the Taft-Hartley were being held in abeyance because of Taft's death.

McConnell said he expected the labor law problems would be taken up again in the near future.

600 Persons Visit Feast of Christ Rites At St. John's Church

Six-hundred persons visited St. John's Catholic church yesterday during the Feast of Christ, the King.

The feast was instituted by Pope Pius XI to give public homage to Christ as ruler of the world, according to the Rev. John D. Tapich, pastor.

Father Tapich said the exposition of the blessed sacrament was celebrated following high mass in the church.

There was a continuous guard of honor for the visitors, Father Tapich said. Holy Name society members were aided by the Girls' Sodality, of the Blessed Virgin Mary, in standing guard.

In the evening, Sacred Heart services were conducted by the Rev. Andrew Parvanski, followed by benediction and reposition of the blessed sacrament. The consecration of the world to the sacred heart of Jesus is renewed every year on this day.

The church choir, directed by George Parvanski, sang responses with Mrs. Parvanski and Joseph Lazar as soloists.

Father Parvanski was assisted by the Rev. Michael Knapik, of Bethlehem, and the Rev. Samuel Fezko, of Phoenixville, with Father Tapich in the sanctuary.

'Keep Busy' for Long Life States 100-Year-Old

READING, Oct. 25 (AP) — Mrs. Mary L. Davies, celebrating her 100th birthday, said her recipe for long life is "keep busy." Mrs. Davies takes in some light work as a seamstress.

She said the past century of progress has been wonderful, but the future doesn't interest her much.

"One my age shouldn't look too far ahead," she explained.

The Rev. E. E. Grosse, district superintendent, made the dedicatory speech and told the group of about 300:

"It takes more than a dedicated building to accomplish God's purpose—it takes a dedicated people."

The Rev. Grosse prayed that there would not be a stagnation, but rather a stimulation and growth, both spiritually and numerically in the congregation.

The Rev. R. E. Zollinhofer, pastor, said the new building was finished and furnished at a cost of $32,900. Much of the work was done by the men of the church, who

CHURCHES TAKE PREFERENCE SURVEY IN AREA

Co-operative Attitude Noted On Part of Home Owners

More than 300 workers in a religious survey conducted yesterday in the Mont Clare-Phoenixville-Kimberton area reported a "very co-operative attitude on the part of almost everyone contacted."

Final reports on the survey, which was to determine the religious preference of area persons, will not be in until Wednesday night, with final results not becoming known until the next day.

The Rev. William G. Silbert Jr., pastor of the First Presbyterian church, Phoenixville, said last night that only preliminary results were in.

"Early returns indicate a very co-operative spirit exhibited by all the communities," he said.

"The workers told me they were thrilled by the response and I am deeply grateful to everyone who participated," he added.

THE SURVEY was sponsored by the Phoenixville Ministerial association, and according to the Rev. Silbert:

"It was entirely a fact-finding survey—there was no evangelism included."

Volunteer workers from these churches called at area homes: Centennial Lutheran, Kimberton; Charlestown Methodist, East Vincent Reformed; Green Tree Brethren, Oaks; Otterbein Evangelical United Brethren, Mont Clare, and St. Paul's Episcopal, Oaks.

Chester Springs, Ridge road, Port Providence and Black Rock were included in the survey territory.

GREAT DEFENSE HALTS LAWSON; BEDELL SCORES ONLY TALLY

By ED TAGGERT

The Trojans of Pottstown High find themselves smack in the running of the Ches-Mont league race after stunning West Chester, 7-0, on dusty Franklin field Saturday afternoon.

The 1500 Pottstown fans enjoyed the best brand of football the Trojans have displayed this year plus the added attraction of a near riot at the end of the game. With coach Heeb Meyers making like the head arbitrator at Pannunzio, the post-game scrimmage was subdued in rapid order with the help of the National Anthem.

It was the Trojans' day, however, and even the rumpus couldn't steal the spotlight from the local stars as they evened both their season and Ches-Mont records.

Howie Bedell scored the game's only touchdown on a 10-yard run in the first period. But unlike in other games this season when Bedell was pretty much the whole show, against the Warriors it was the Trojan defense that tied for top honors.

A charging forward wall and a secondary that intercepted four passes, handed the highly-rated WC eleven its first blanking this season. Charlie Lawson, except for one brief spell in the second period, was completely bottled up. The league's top scorer came out a poor second in his individual rushing duel with Bedell.

POTTSTOWN is now 3-3 over the season and 1-1 in the league. The Warriors hold a 2-2 rating in the loop and stand 2-3 and one tie for the campaign.

Actually, the narrow margin of the final score does not give a clear picture of how the Trojans completely dominated the game. After Bedell scored, the winners settled down to play a terrific defensive game that improved as each quarter rolled by.

Some long and accurate punting by quarterback Josh Sova also kept the Warriors back on their heels.

The first time Pottstown gained possession of the ball it started to move. Clark Burns,

Bill Kerr and Bedell rushed for a combined total of 27 yards and a pair of first downs.

Then the Trojans received their only break of the game. Sova was back to pass on fourth down and as he was about to throw he was hit. The ball flew out to the right a few feet and end Mike Reilly picked it up and ran better than 60 yards to the end zone.

But the officials ruled the play an incomplete pass and West Chester was given the ball on their own 33.

THE NEXT TIME the Trojans got the ball they marched 52 yards for a score. Bedell initiated the drive with a 13-yard run through the left side of his line. Short backs by Sova, Bedell and Kerr picked up seven yards and on fourth down Jim Kirk came in and tossed a two-handed jump pass to Matt Wensel. The play was good for six yards and a first.

Marple-Newtown Hands Spring City 4th Defeat, 6-0

The scoring drought continues at Spring City as the Pirates dropped their fourth straight game Saturday, a 6-0 loss to visiting Marple-Newtown.

Unable to find the scoring punch that has eluded them in every defeat, the Pirates again presented a staunch defense. But a pair of fumbles by the home forces turned the tide in the direction of the MT's as they won their second game of the season against a trio of defeats.

Marple recovered a Spring City fumble on the losers' 15-yard line in the third period to set up the scoring opportunity. Several cracks at the line moved the ball to the SC four where Gerry Renner bucked into the line for the touchdown.

The Pirates had a golden chance to tie the count at the beginning of the fourth period but again it was the fumble nemesis that thwarted the drive.

After recovering a MT bobbie on the winners' 20, the Pirates marched to the four-yard-line in three plays. First quarterback Bobby Stipa pushed through the line for 10 yards. Don Himes failed to gain but Bill Bainbridge belted down to the four before being brought down.

HIS NUMBER was called again but this time he fumbled and the Marples recovered. Between the two clubs, they fumbled nine times. Spring City held the upper hand in first downs, 9-8, and connected on four of 10 passes. The winners tossed four passes, all incomplete. Penalty figures show Spring City lost 15 yards because of infractions, and Marple was assessed 25.

The Pirates of Coach Bud Cleveland hope to snap their losing string when they entertain the Norco Wildcats next Saturday afternoon. This neighborhood battle should be very close.

Whippets Down Bridgeport, 7-0

The Ches-Mont league race was thrown wide open at Downingtown on Saturday when the Whippets handed Bridgeport its first loss of the season, 7-0.

The Dragons still lead the league with a 3-1 mark, but now every team in the loop has at least one defeat to its credit.

Sophomore John Chilla led a 30-yard touchdown thrust for the Whippets twice completing 15-yard passes, the second to Norris Miller good for the touchdown. Junior Ron Jeffries kicked the extra point.

Downingtown had scored a few plays earlier but a penalty nullified the effort. Bridgeport also had a TD called back due to a roughing penalty.

WILSON BEATS ROYERSFORD, 19-14, AS EAGLE COMEBACK FAILS

By BILL BRADLEY

Royersford should stop playing the first halves of its football games. The Eagles just get into trouble the first two periods, then spend the second half trying to get themselves out of a hole. And that's exactly what happened Saturday night, when Royersford hosted Wilson High School and went down scrap-

The Prexies, playing for the breaks, turned a blocked kick, a pass interception and a pichtout to "the little man who wasn't there" into six-pointers.

Three plays after the opening kickoff, Fred Franks, Wilson back, hit Ed White on the middle stripe with an aerial, and White skipped down to the Eagle six where he was swarmed under.

Unwaved by the early show of strength from Wilson, who previously had upset favored Royersford, the Eagles held on to send the Prexies away from the goal line disappointed.

The Eagles kicked out and a few plays later Carl Hassler, Prexie quarterback, was tossed for a 13 yard loss. Wilson kicked to the Eagle 23.

Three cracks at the line netted a goose egg, and the Eagle's Jansen Fray kicked out, but Frank Leach blocked the boot and the Prexies took over on the Royersford 19. Three plays later Hassler handed off to Dick Rice who plugged over for the score. Steve Pinkbner, Eagle left tackle, blocked Hassler's conversion attempt.

Early in the second period, after having driven to the Prexie three on a 16-yard run by Charley Miller, and plunges by Miller and Hal Johnston, Fray faded to pass. The ball traveled about six inches straight into the hot hands of Prexie tackle, Karl Goetz, who slowly rambled 90 yards to score with the entire Wilson team keeping down to the Eagle six where he was good.

TWO PLAYS after the kickoff, Fray pitched out to Miller who fumbled on his own 36. Galen Fisher, Wilson guard, grabbed the ball on the 35 and traveled to the Eagle 10 before being caught from behind by Bill Rogers.

Les Greenwalt saved the day for Royersford when he flopped on Hassler's fumble on his own 15 three plays later, but on the next series of downs when Fray pitched out no one was there, and Franks recovered for the Prexies on the Eagle 21.

With Hassler handling the ball and Franks and Bill Smith doing the leg work, the Prexies moved down to the two where Hassler swept right end for the marker. Hassler's kick was low as the half ended.

Wilson was only able to get as far as its own 43 following the kickoff, then kicked to the Eagles. The Birds started flying high after being forced to kick out when the Prexies held. Wilson returned the kick and the Eagles went to work.

Johnston went for 15 around right end, then Miller worked the opposite side for another eight yards and finished the job off by pitching to Henry Wojton in the end zone for the score. Miller went off left tackle for the extra point.

Wilson went nowhere after the kickoff and booted to the Eagle 25 where two plays later, Jack Strunk found Jim Bauer alone on the Prexie 40, hit him with a pass, and Bauer went all the way, aided by Miller's key block on the Wilson 20. Miller started end for the conversion.

GLOOMY WEATHER, SPARKLING FOOTBALL—Howie Bedell displays a wild expression (above) which is just the way he played football on Saturday. Bedell is brought down by several West Chester players after gaining the first 13 yards of the 52-yard touchdown drive in the 7-0 Pottstown victory at Franklin field. The other Pottstown players identified are Mike Reilly, in pile, Clark Burns, 60, and Mac Shirey, 43. The West Chester players identified are Mike Reilly, 81, Arnold Steele, over Bedell's helmet, and Charlie Anderson, 72, on knees at right. The photo on the left was snapped later in the afternoon when the gloom set in and the dust grew worse. Clark Burns, 60, is stopped after a gain of four yards by West Chester guard, Dick Gentry, 61. Pottstown guard Jim Levellie, 23, carried out his blocking assignment on this play but Burns was unable to get away. Larry Lawler, 67, and Bill Kerr, 29, can be seen for Pottstown. Phil Tilghman, 6-4, 205 West Chester tackle is No. 90, and back Dick Yoder is No. 85.

Domin Bucks for Point

Norco Ties Wyomissing, 7-7, as McAfee Scores Touchdown

The Wyomissing Sunsets pushed another fumble, this time by Bill Whitlach, Wildcat fullback, gave Wyomissing another chance, but it could only pick up nine yards.

Between Brower and Domin the Wildcats rolled up three first downs on their way to the Wyomissing 39 from which point they were forced to kick, early in the second period.

After going nowhere, Rickenbach booted out from his own five to the Sunset 45, where Dave Clemens, Norco quarterback, took the ball and weaved his way down to the Wyomissing 15.

A FUMBLE, a strong Sunset line and lack of blocking on Clemens' pass attempt spiked the drive and Wyomissing took over.

Throughout the rest of the pre-half period, the two clubs ground away at each other, with Rickenbach throwing for Wyomissing, and Clemens handling the same chores for Norco. Domin snagged Kirst's pass toward the end of the frame, but was unable to go far with it.

Three plays later Oleksa broke his leg making a tackle after Norco booted.

Wyomissing rolled up 116 yards passing in the third quarter, with 80 yards of aerial traffic counting for the TD.

The Sunsets received the kickoff, and a series of running and passing plays by Rickenbach carried Wyomissing to its own 47 where Tom Helfrich took Rickenbach's pass on his own 15 and carried upfield 20 yards to halt the Sunset advance.

The Wildcats were only able to get as far as the Wyomissing 41 where they were forced to boot. Three plays later Kirst tossed a screen pass to Jerry Muhlenberg who took the ball on his own 20 and went to the Norco 12 before being nailed from behind by Whitlach. Two plays later Kirst tossed to Rickenbach for the score, then fired to Muhlenberg for the extra point.

Once again Norco was unable to get started, and both clubs fought away at midfield as the quarter ended.

A NORCO DRIVE that took it from its own 27 to its 45 fizzled

YESTERDAY, hospital authorities said that Oleksa was "doing fine," and Norco assistant coach Lou Buckwalter, who was up to see him, said the effects were starting to wear off and that he was "feeling quite jovial."

"It's going to hurt tremendously," Buckwalter said, referring to the left end's loss. "He was playing a beautiful defensive game when he got hurt and was only in for four or five plays."

Oleksa fractured his nose in an automobile accident earlier in the week.

Curfew for This Week

POTTSTONIANS who dread the arrival of October's final week, with its "mischief night," Halloween, and premature observances of the trick or treat antics, could be spared much of the disagreeableness and damage.

Fun is fun, and everybody's anxious to see the children have a happy time, dressing up and fooling neighbors.

Homeowners aren't spoil-sports if they complain about porch furniture being stolen, porches damaged by milk bottle shatterings, windows being broken and washlines cut.
That's vandalism.

To insure the masquerading youngsters having a frolic and to prevent the marauders from damaging public property, here's a suggestion:

Let borough officials reinstate the curfew alarm for this last week in October. Let the whistle sound at 9 o'clock, or even 10 o'clock, to warn children to get off the streets. Then let the police department enforce the curfew.

This should get the children off the streets.
And residents near borough hall who complained their rest was disturbed by the curfew alarm shouldn't mind just for one week.
Especially if it will stop vandalism.

Glory of Our Days

INDIAN Summer, usually a highly hypothetical date on the calendar, has been notable this Fall for its duration. One who has not been out into the country is likely to complain that it has meant more Summer than Indian.

But the traditional glory of the season, high coloring beneath hazily sunny skies, has been present in equal degree. Anyone who has headed his automobile radiator into the suburbs has been especially rewarded.
Most of the typical wooded ridges are a tapestry of color that is predominantly somber but exceptionally rich.

The often dull oaks have become themselves. They range from pure bronze to deep red wine, set off by enough of the brighter yellow and scarlet of maple and poplar and birch to enrich their tones.

We trust some of the cars streaming on our Pottstown highways last weekend were armed with color film to bring back a credible record. A calendar artist who did right by his palette would not be believed.

The Red Feather Flies

IT is the season of the Red Feather in Pottstown, and in the next few weeks or so the citizens are going to be put to a test of their willingness to take care of their own.

Some 350 volunteer solicitors are already on the move. They are your neighbors, your friends, your fellow workers.

They are seeking to raise $182,000 to finance next year's activities in the Red Feather's health and welfare agencies.

Meeting the goal of each campaign is going to take a good deal of hard work on the part of the Red Feather's many representatives.

You can do your part by a show of courtesy and generosity when one of them rings your door bell or visits you in your factory or your office.

The Red Feather campaigns are community efforts and they require community participation.

Let 1953 be a year when everyone does his part!

Honorable Exception

ONE reason for the incredible cost of government is that too many of us want economy for the other fellow only — and never in matters that affect us.

But there are honorable exceptions, and they deserve recognition.

A short time ago the forest service merged its Hailey, Idaho, headquarters with that of Twin Falls in order to save $15,000 a year.

It might have been expected that Hailey people would howl in protest. But that wasn't the case.

The Hailey Times said: "Naturally we don't like to lose our Forest Service headquarters . . . but the fantastic cost of government can't be lowered without some sacrifices.
Less than a saving of $15,000 annually looks less than a pikehead; but five such mergers made recently adds up to $75,000 annually
. . . Multiply such savings over and over again through the hundreds of branches of federal government and you begin to see some hope for a cut in taxes."

We need more—a whole lot more—of that spirit.

Funeral Processions Obstruct Traffic

Objects to Procession

To the Editor: I have no objections to paying due respect to the dead. I think everyone who dies and prefers burial to cremation should get the proper procession to the cemetery.

But what I do object to is that there should be a police car escorting the procession through red lights and generally causing undue traffic obstruction on our local streets.

Good gosh! The traffic problem is difficult enough as it is without a long procession of cars winding in and out along the crowded thoroughfares.

Besides, the dead have plenty of time to be buried in. They are going to be dead a long time. Why the rush?

What would happen if the procession went through a red light just as an ambulance got to the intersection during an emergency call?

I'd hate to think of the possible results.

I'm in favor of some other plan of getting the dead to the cemetery for the ceremonies due them.

Scores Halloween

To the Editor: I think Halloween parades are a lot of bunk. No one cares about Halloween anyway.

The only reason youngsters are interested in Halloween is because they have a good excuse to stuff their little bellies full of candy.

The only reason adults care about Halloween is it gives them an excuse to hold parties during which they amuse themselves with a lot of stupid games like ducking for apples or pinning tails

INTERPRETIVE

US May Get 'Tough' With South Americans

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 25 — Despite repeated warnings, the Eisenhower Administration only now recognizes the existence of anti-American sentiment amounting to outright hostility throughout Central and South America. Recent White House pronouncements on the problem may herald a more realistic and tougher policy toward our erstwhile "good neighbors."

Where the feeling against the "Yankees" is not openly and officially Communist, it consists of a secret delight in looking on while George Melenco and Mao Tse-tung pull Uncle Sam's whiskers until it hurts. Next to a bull fight, it is their most enjoyable spectacle.

In his recent denunciation of a little and harmless Guatemala as "citradel of Communism," John M. Cabot, assistant secretary of state, understated the facts for diplomatic reasons.
Although this Central American country, standing athwart the Panama Canal, encourages and aids Red conspiracies, a strong pro-Moscow faction exists in every other country below the Rio Grande.

Cabot should have broadened his indictment to include every Latin-American Republic, with the exception of Mexico, Brazil, Colombia, Peru, Ecuador, and Paraguay. They alone have resisted every effort of Juan Peron, Argentina dictator, to organize an anti-American bloc under the guise of a Latin-American Defense Community.
However, save for Brazil and Peru, they are militarily and economically weak.
Only Colombia gave active aid in Korea, sending an infantry battalion.

Another indication of a more positive Washington attitude lies in our official approval of Churchill's intervention against Communists in British Guiana.
Although a technical violation of the Monroe Doctrine, his dispatch of warships and troops was okayed by the White House.

IGNORE WARNINGS: Despite these significant warnings, most Latin-American political leaders are utterly indifferent to the great issues involved in the US-USSR struggle. They do not feel compelled to suppress Communists, unless they conspire against the ruling regimes here. They refuse to envisage Moscow expansion as a serious threat to themselves, although they would be the first to run to Washington for protection in event of imminent danger.

Another and more practical reason lies behind this tolerance, even sympathy, for the Reds. The petty dictators down here—and most heads of states are army-backed rulers—figure that they can wangle more money from the US Treasury, if they keep us alarmed over the prospect of South America as a Communist beachhead. Our dollar loans, as in China, would wind up in the pockets of a few politicians and their cronies.

The millions of ordinary, Latin-American peasants and workers are not unfriendly to us. Indeed, they are extremely gracious and grateful for what little aid has trickled down to them.

But they are so illiterate, so borne down in wretchedness, so subdued by hopeless poverty, so controlled by politico-economic masters and police, that they do not count in domestic or world affairs. They are peons in all but name, not citizens.

Put Cops Back on Beats

To the Editor: I have been wondering why our police force is using so few men at the hours when they seem to be most needed.

I bring up the point of wasted police power because of the many robberies and holdups that fill the paper.

It seems a shame that we can't get more policemen patrolling beats so that people coming home late at night or a couple sitting in their car could be safe from the wolves that infest the streets at night.

No Old-Time Fun

To the Editor: What happened to all the good wholesome fun that I used to have on Halloween when I was a boy?

It seems today's youngsters spend most of their time standing on street corners in ridiculous clothing without sharing in Halloween's harmless pranks.

I'm not referring to the stuff youngsters are pulling nowadays. We didn't go around putting boulders in the road or throwing objects through windows.
Those aren't pranks. Those acts are sheer vandalism.

Why don't youngsters ring door bells, tie door knobs and other harmless things to vent their Halloween joys?

The Worry Clinic

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

ALICE G. has a sister who is 6.
"Dr. Crane, I need your advice," her mother began, "for my husband thinks there is too much false modesty in America."

"So he insists that we go naked before the children around the house. He thinks it is perfectly proper for them to enter the bathroom while he is in the tub."

"But I disagree, so will you please give us the psychological views in this matter?"

MODESTY IS much like etiquette in the parlor or table manners in the dining room.

It is a product of our cultural development. In the days of cave-men, they ate with their fingers, and showed no chivalry toward women.

They lived almost on the plane of animals. But in comparatively modern times the human race has advanced in manners and music and reading and science.

Perhaps some people in previous generations were too prudish. They carried modesty too far.

But it is just as much a fault to lack modesty as to omit knives and forks from the dinner table and scoop up mashed potatoes with our bare hands.

IF ALICE'S FATHER also teaches her to run around her home with no clothes on, and to invade men's toilets, she will soon be ostracized by desirable playmates when she innocently tries to do the same things elsewhere.

Good parents must think ahead. And one mark of intelligence is this very foresight which enables us to anticipate future unpleasant aspects of any contemplated new act of the present moment.

Alice's father is definitely not looking ahead. So he will prejudice the friendships and social standing of his children by trying to violate American customs.

For bathrooms are built with doors and locks thereon because we modern Americans expect privacy therein.

Is She Kidding?

To the Editor: The Mercury ought to be ashamed of itself for printing that story about how wide open Pottstown is at night. If that isn't an invitation to every crook in the area to walk in and walk out with pockets full I never saw one.

Why didn't you also print the schedule at night. If that isn't an invitation to every points?

Even if the police department doesn't have anybody guarding us at night, do you think it's right to tell everybody about it? If conditions aren't right why didn't you just tell the police chief about it quietly?

I'm sure he'd rectify the situation.

Spread Stories Okay

To the Editor: I've read with a great deal of interest your stories about old bedspreads.

Why don't you have more of that sort of thing? I think the pictures and stories are just wonderful.

It's not very often that you see a story that appeals to women as well as men on the front page of daily newspapers.

One Exception

To the Editor: There is no enforcement of our speed laws which accounts largely for a huge death toll. Spring a few traps on these 85-and 90-mile-per-hour drivers and you will see an immediate improvement, that is, everywhere except Pottstown.

John Garfield, Jimmy Cagney — and other he-man stars . . . Debbie Reynolds, never at loss for swains is dating John Anderson lately. Debbie's
has been delayed again and again, during which time Dan Dailey, David Wayne and others of the original cast have had to drop out because of other assignments. Now
"Susan" is definitely set to start at RKO (instead of Warners) within two weeks.

UNDISCOVERED by production headaches during the making of "William Tell" abroad, Errol Flynn is forming another film company with his old partner, Barry Mahon.
They plan a group of six pictures, not necessarily with Flynn as the star. The first is scheduled to star Errol's long-time pal, Bruce Cabot.
Cabot can use the money! His estranged wife is still trying to pin him down long enough to extract support money for herself and their child. Bruce left the US for Europe claiming he was flat broke.

LINDA DARNELL is well enough to leave Hollywood next week for further picture-making in Europe.
This time she goes to France instead of Rome where she's been thus occupied for most of the past year. Linda and Jean Pierre Aumont will co-star in "Twist of Fate," which David Miller will direct. The film starts in Paris, Nov. 5 . . . Charles Chaplin Jr. has asked Susan Cooke to marry him . . . Arlene Dahl has asked for and gotten her release (it says here) from her high-paying contract with Pepsi-Cola, for which firm she's been acting as fashion-commentator on a dramatic TV series. However, the public will see her on these shows for at least the next two months, since the first 26 have already been filmed. Miss Dahl's video debut was not greeted with critical acclaim!

ATTEND MASQUERADE — Edward Mihlhouse, Howard Smith, Comly Nagle, Harry Smith and some I.A.C. members attended a masquerade dance in Spring City.

ALL AROUND THE TOWN

The Skies in 1954 . . . Christmas on Saturday . . .

★ TIME FLIES—It's not the falling leaves, the frost on the pumpkin that remind us of time's quick passage. The death of 1953, so prematurely, is heralded by the annual arrival to this desk of Baer's Agricultural Almanac, that hardy Lancaster county encyclopedia of weather lore, farming wisdom and homely lore. How these almanacs and the calendars remind us that years pass much faster as we grow older! Just like they make those numbers in the telephone book smaller every year! Next year, the almanac says, will bring a "razzledazzle" sky, with a total eclipse of the sun on June 30, the first visible in the United States in several years. All told there will be five eclipses, three of the sun and two of the moon, but the total eclipse of the sun will be the one most easily visible to most residents of the nation . . .

★ ANOTHER UNUSUAL sky event will be the approach of the Pons-Brooks comet in early Summer, the comet's first visit to our solar system in 70 years. The comet will be closest to the earth on May 27, and visible to the naked eye . . . A look at the calendar shows that 1954 will enter with a "long weekend" for many persons, since New Year's Eve will be on a Thursday night, and New Year's Day on Friday. Lincoln's birthday will fall on a Friday, and Washington's on a Monday. Easter will arrive on April 18. Memorial Day and the Fourth of July will be Sunday holidays. Christmas will be on a Saturday . . .

★ NOW, weather lore is not the only wisdom that's handed out in this almanac. For instance it says a portable fire extinguisher that squirts dry ice on burning food makes a handsome wedding gift, since it is described as "a boon to the young bride that doesn't know much about cooking." If used on burning steaks, "the dry ice will all evoporate and you won't know the difference" . . . Then again, white vinegar can be helpful to you in keeping sticky bugs, bug juice, oil film and other smears from your windshield. Take a bottle with a stopper, and fill it one-quarter full with vinegar. Make sure it's white vinegar. Fill the bottle the rest of the way with water. Wipe this on the windshield wipers and the windshield, then wipe dry.
It'll provide a clear glass, and no streaks when the blades are started . . .

INTERESTING is this almanac item: Pennsylvania Dutchmen are sometimes prone to play down some of their more picturesque language, as mere dialect instead of "good English." But we feel that there are numerous words in this category which should be incorporated into everyday use everywhere. One of these words is "outen." Any Pennsylvania Dutchman knows that when you "outen" a fire or a lamp, you put it out. We feel that "outen" is far more effective than such a highflown word as extinguish. Sometimes newspapers say that firemen "quell" or "douse" a fire, or that a man "turns out" or "switches off" a light. We think that all such terms are inadequate. "Outen" is the fastest, clearest way to say exactly what is meant.

★ THE ALMANAC contains a number of nuggets of wisdom, weatherwise and otherwise. A few follow: "When bees stay close to home, look for showers."
"A smile is a bridge two persons can walk; a frown is a chasm one must leap." . . . "If marigolds fail to open by 7 a. m., expect a storm." . . . "To improve the taste of a pinch of salt, add it to a steak done rare, medium or well, as you prefer." "Whoever brings the Christmas holly into the house first—husband or wife—will rule the home for the next year." . . . And if you want the formula for a long married life, here it is: Mr.
and Mrs. William S. Cook, of Santa Rosa, Calif., marked their 75th wedding anniversary on March 28, 1953. This was their advice: Mrs. Cook—"Learn to cook a good meal and you'll keep your husband." Cook—"Learn to eat the cooking and not complain and you'll keep out of trouble."

YOUR HEALTH

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.
SYMPTOMS that are "too late and too little" mask cancer of the ovary, and make it one of the most disturbing and difficult cancers to treat.

The deaths from this type of cancer of the female sex gland are fairly high.
The majority of the cases arise in women between 50 and 60 years of age, and are more common after menopause or change of life.

There are too few symptoms and these symptoms occur late in the disease, further hindering its cure.

Enlargement and pains of the abdomen, loss of weight, weakness, and bleeding after the menopause are the most frequent complaints. Since these symptoms do occur late, a method has been sought to determine the disease at its onset.

It is believed that if more women avail themselves of routine female examinations at short intervals, especially after the age of menopause, many of these tumors could be detected early.

If there is any enlargement present, it is usually thought best to remove it surgically.

Any woman who has bleeding after the menopause should have an immediate examination to determine the cause.

Usually, women past the age of menopause are very reluctant to go through regular periodic examinations, but it is so important for their welfare. If a tumor is present, these examinations will disclose it and enable the treatment to start at once.

Irish Sittin' Pretty After Purdue Ends Spartans' Sreak

NEW YORK, Oct. 25 (AP)—Purdue's 6-0 up set of Michigan State may have cleared the way for Notre Dame's return to the National championship status from which those same Boilermakers had knocked them in 1950.

While Notre Dame, currently the nation's top team, overpowered fourth-ranked Georgia Tech 27-14 to end a 31-game unbeaten string for the Engineers, Purdue was snapping a 28-game victory streak for the Spartans, ranked No. 2 before the contest.

Ironically, Notre Dame's principal competitor in the national title race was stopped by the squad that had ended Irish supremacy of 1948-49 with a 28-14 victory early in 1950. It also had severed the longest modern undefeated record at 39.

Ironically, too, it was a student who had transferred from Michigan State, Dan Pobjewski, whose touchdown belatedly Spartan hopes for a Big Ten title in their first year as an active member.

Maryland, seemingly growing in stature each week, enhanced its No. 3 position with a 30-0 defeat of Miami Friday night. The Terps' biggest foe appears to be a schedule which offers less of a challenge than does Notre Dame's.

MICHIGAN STATE AND GEORGIA TECH were not alone Saturday as disaster or close calls rocked most of the top-ranking eleven, leaving only the Irish, Maryland, Baylor, West Virginia, Utah and Mississippi Southern among the major unbeaten, untied schools.

Paul Giel's masterful performance and an unyielding defense enabled Minnesota to hand Michigan, No. 5 its first setback of the season, 22-0. The game marked the 50th anniversary of the Little Brown Jug and the Gophers' first triumph in the series since Bill Garnaas' field goal gave them a 14-14 edge in 1942.

Tenth-rated Navy felt victim to Ed Gramigna's last minute field goal as Penn kicked the Middies out of the unbeaten category 9-6.

By the margin of a deflected conversion attempt Baylor, No. 6, nudged Texas A & M 14-13 in the battle of the day in the Southwest. Merrill Green's 51-yard scoring run with 36 seconds remaining in the game brought ninth place Oklahoma a 27-20 victory over Colorado. Illinois, No. 7 and current leader in the Big Ten, had to hustle to turn back Syracuse 20-13. Eighth-ranked West Virginia had an easier time, running over Virginia military 52-20.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA, No. 11, and UCLA, No. 12, continued to hurdle toward their late-November meeting with Pacific Coast conference victories. The Trojans whacked California's title bid 32-20 while the Bruins, resuming their winnings after a 21-20 loss to Stanford, blasted Washington State 14-7. But Stanford emerged atop the PCC standings with a 13-7 triumph over Washington.

RACES POSTPONED AT HATFIELD TRACK
The big car AAA races at Hatfield Speedway were halted by rain yesterday afternoon shortly after Wally Campbell, of Trenton, N. J., won the opening heat in 4:27.04.

The races will be staged next Sunday, the last of the season, to determine the eastern point winner. Joe Soslito, who leads by 13½ points over Reading's Tommy Hinrichs, placed second in the only race yesterday.

SUGAR RAY GETS $350,000 OFFER

HOLYOKE, Mass., Oct. 25 (AP)—Sugar Ray Robinson said today the International Boxing club has made him a very attractive offer to return to the ring in quest of the world middleweight boxing crown now held by Carl (Bobo) Olson of San Francisco.

Olson defeated Britain's Randy Turpin for Robinson's vacated middleweight title last Wednesday night in New York's Madison Square Garden. Since that time there have been reports that the IBC is trying to lure Robinson back into the ring.

The unofficial guess as to what the IBC offered Robinson is $350,000—for a future title fight with Olson or whoever holds the crown at the time—but Sugar Ray would only say that the IBC's latest offer is $50,000 better than the previous one.

The fight presumably would be an outdoor affair next summer after Robinson tries a few warm-up bouts.

160-POUNDERS DOMINATE FIGHT CARD THIS WEEK
NEW YORK, Oct. 25 (AP)—The Middleweight division bustles with new life since Bobo Olson won the title as the ranking contenders gamble for a shot at the new champ, the 160-pounds, a flyweight title go and a rematch of lightweight George Araujo and Red Top Davis top the week's program.

Joey Giardello, fifth-ranked middle from Philadelphia, opens the week Monday at Brooklyn's Eastern Parkway against Walter Cartier of New York, one of Olson's victims enroute to the top. The bout will be televised in some sections of the country.

Ricky Castellani, now fighting out of Cleveland, tops the Wednesday TV show from Cleveland against France's Mickey Laurent Castellani, moving up since he squared accounts with Pierre Langlois, now is the third contender in the ring middleweight ratings.

Joey Giambra of Buffalo, N. Y., No. 6 in the 160-pound class, meets Jim (Red) Elby of Toledo in a co-featured bout on the same Cleveland show.

Newly-wed Araujo, the Providence, R. I., contender who was stopped by Jimmy Carter, June 12, will try to reverse a defeat by Davis Friday night at Madison Square Garden. Davis upset Araujo Sept. 10.

Danny (Bang Bang) Womber of Chicago, who upset Kid Gavilan in an over-the-weight match last summer, meets Wilbur Wilson Saturday at Boston on another TV show—a meeting of two willing mixers.

The Browns chalked up their fifth victory for a two-game margin over the Pittsburgh Steelers, but it wasn't until after they staged another one of their rugged battles with the New York Giants 7-0.

Two long passes by Bobby Layne gave Detroit's Lions a 14-10 over San Francisco before the day's largest turnout of 54,862. The defeat dropped the 49ers out of a share of the division's top spot but the Los Angeles Rams kept pace with the Lions by whipping the Chicago Bears 38-24 with 49,546 spectators on hand. The Lions and Rams each has a 4-1 record.

The Steelers started the weekend activities with a 31-14 victory over the Green Bay Packers last night. Philadelphia's Eagles cut loose with relentless ground and air attack to bury the winless Chicago Cardinals 56-17 and a tie for third place with the Washington Redskins, who dropped a 21-17 decision to the Baltimore Colts.

A crowd of 30,773 braved a steady all-day rain to see the Browns and Giants stage another one of their nip and tuck contests. They have split even in the 28-game series and the Browns hold a 100-88 margin in the over-all scoring.

A New York penalty on Cleveland's missed fourth down field goal set up the only touchdown after two minutes and 46 seconds of play in the second quarter. The Browns climaxed a 28-yard drive to the Giant 11, where they were checked. Lou Groza's field goal attempt went wide but an official detected a Giant offside and Cleveland was awarded a first down on the six.

AFTER BILLY REYNOLDS sloshed to the four, Otto Graham sneaked over for the tally and Groza added the extra point. The Giants twice drove deep into enemy territory in the final five minutes but an intercepted pass stopped them each time.

The Eagles' collection of eight touchdowns and as many extra points matched their own modern point total of 58-20 against Los Angeles in 1950. The defeat also was the worst in the Cardinals' NFL history.

Seven different Eagles flew over the goal line with Jim Farmer making it across twice. The Cards took a 3-0 lead in the opening period on Pat Summerall's 28-yard field goal. Then the Philadelphians began methodically ripping the hapless Cardinal defense. Bobby Thomason passed for two touchdowns and Adrian Burk for one.

Four came on line smashes and the eighth when Tom Scott recovered the ball knocked out of Jim Root's hands in the end zone. The Colts used a 52-yard field goal by Bert Rechichar as a spring board to bounce back for their victory over the Redskins before 34,031 fans at Baltimore. He also kicked another field goal in the third period, intercepted two passes and recovered fumble.

They left the field at half deadlocked at 10-10 but the Colts put the game away with 10 more in the third quarter and then matched the Redskins' touchdown in the final period.

Layne quarterbacked the Lions from a 0-10 deficit to their second win of the year over the 49ers. In the second period he lofted a long one to Dorne Dibble, who ran five yards to complete a 47-yard scoring play. And on the first play of the final quarter, with the ball on San Francisco's 24, Layne shot a pass down the middle of Ollie Cline, who raced over for the winning tally.

THE 49ERS travelled 80 yards from the opening kickoff for their touchdown with Joe Perry cracking the line for the final two. In the second period Gordon Soltau kicked a 33-yard field goal.

The Rams scored three times in the second period and held a 24-10 half-time lead but had to break a deadlock in the final period before defeating the Bears. Norman Van Brocklin and Bob Boyd combined in scoring plays of 70 and 43 yards and a 59-yard run by Deacon Dan Towler gave the Rams their second period touchdowns.

This looked safe enough until George Blanda sent the Bears on two scoring drives in the final period. The first covered 90 yards with Fred Morrison tallying. The next one ate up 52 yards with Billy Stone taking Blanda's pass to tie the score at 24.

The Rams promptly drove 77 yards in five plays to go ahead with Skeet Quinlan covering the last 23 and then Towler got loose for 23 to sew up the contest.

THE GANG'S ALL HERE—This picture typifies the defense set up by Pottstown High Saturday in the 7-0 win over West Chester. Charles Anderson is the well-throttled Warrior back on the bottom of this pile as Tony Giangiacomo, 76, and Bill Kerr, 29, take part in bringing him down. Larry Jones, head down next to Kerr, is another of five Pottstown players who are teaming up in this action.

Trojans Beat Warriors, 7-0

13. Kerr picked up three more and Burns was stopped for no gain. That set the stage for Bedell to race around left end, and as Burns cut down a threatening Warrior at the eight, Howie romped for the TD.

It was the Trojan's day for doing things right and Tom Troutman joined the party by booting a perfect extra point. Early in the second quarter, the Warriors made their only bid. Starting on their own 38 after Sovo got off his only poor punt of the day—it traveled only 11 yards before going out of bounds—the WC boys paraded for three straight first downs.

Lawson had his best gain, 11 yards, in this push and did most of the work with Arnold Steele and Charlie Anderson helping out. The most crucial play of the game dropped up after a pass from West Chester to Anderson gave West Chester a fourth down and two on Pottstown's 22. With fellows like co-captain Joe Rettew, Jim Porter, Tony Giangiacomo, Al Bodelus and everybody else in the Trojan forward wall, rose up and stopped Lawson inches short of the first down.

FROM THAT POINT on it was just a series of penalties ruining every Pottstown scoring opportunity, and the Trojan pass defense blanketing out every Warrior bid. The penalty that hurt the most was a back-in-motion infraction called in the early minutes of the last period. A bad punt by Greenwalt gave Pottstown the ball on West Chester's 18.

Red Kerr, who claims he has never scored a touchdown, bolted through the left side of the line and broke into the clear. But the officials were tossing flags around almost as the play started and the Kerr's almost touchdown run was nullified.

West Chester actually lost yardage in the second half as the Trojans forwards stymied every ground attempt. Seeing it was useless to try and run, Greenwalt and Lawson tried to pass. They tossed four aerials in the second half. One was completed for five yards and the other three were intercepted. Red Kerr picked two of them out of Warrior receivers' hands and Bedell pulled down another and ran it back 15 yards.

The interceptions came right after the Warriors gained possession, on either first or second down. The losers gave up the ball on first down another time as Flip Smoyer recovered a Lawson fumble on the West Chester 45.

The big fuss after game was instigated in the fourth quarter when the Warriors' 225-pound tackle Jack Nolder, and Sovo were ejected from the game for fighting. As soon as the final whistle blew Nolder charged onto the field in Sovo's direction. In seconds the field looked like a young dust storm has set in. Players and fans alike milled around and the only casualty reported was Kirk who got a bump on the nose.

Order was quickly restored with Meyers leading the peace makers. It was reported that West Chester coach Ben Coren ordered Nolder to turn in his uniform.

HILL BOOTERS LOSE TO GIRARD COLLEGE
A strong Girard college soccer team had its hands full before defeating a much improved club of Hill school booters Saturday, 3-1, in a game played at Hill's Kaul field.

Joe Zanghi led Girard with two goals, one in the first period and another in the second. Tony Caruso also put one across in the second period.

Hill's only tally came when Bill Moran passed to Mike Fester who went through the right full-back for the goal.

Hill coach Bob Morgan feels that the Hillers are picking up and expects them to do much better when they travel to Blair on Wednesday. The Blues have a 0-4 record for the season.

COLLEGEVILLE DEFEATS UPPER DUBLIN, 14-7
The up-and-down Colonels of Collegeville were up on Saturday and ner to Art Russell. Yeagle and Russell both had possession of the ball as they wrestled to the ground with it, but the officials ruled it a completed pass. A pass from Surgenor to Al Harris accounted for the extra point.

BOTH TEAMS tried the air lines without too much success in the third period. In the final quarter UD started a drive on its own 35 and moved to the Colts' 20 before being halted. The home boys picked up three first downs along the way in their best march of the night.

Collegeville's next rugged test will be at home against West Reading next Friday night.

Reitnauer Sets Record

Mose Moore Winds Up Sanatoga Racing With 5th Win

Despite cloudy skies and a chilly Earl Reitnauer breezed home in wind, an estimated crowd of 3200 3:09.2 to set a new record for 12 speed fans turned out to bid farewell to the first heat, but he failed well to stock car racing for another, to follow through with a place in year and to see mighty Mose Moore the main event.

Mose showed no signs of going anywhere judging from his jockeying in the third heat. Moore just managed to qualify A big day was indicated when.

for the final by slipping into the number five spot, behind Monk Keller, Noot Reinert, Bob Johnson and Bill Cronrath, who took the heat in 3:12.3.

Red Leshar was unable to compete in any of the three qualifying heats because of car trouble. The popularity poll leader got his car in shape for the Consolation, however, and was never in trouble as he got the checkered flag in 3:13.6 minutes.

MOSE STARTED off in 14th place in the 75-lapper and battled it out with Leshar, who was 16th, for the major part of the big run for the money.

After Dick Rodenberger spun out on the fourth turn in the 25th lap, the race was restarted and Moore pressed his heavy foot on the pedal in earnest. In an exciting exhibition of weaving and shifting, the Pottstown desperado squeezed by Reinert, who finished second, to cop the feature, his fifth in a row. The win still leaves him behind brother Harry in the point standings, something Mose had hoped to correct the last time out for the season.

SUMMARY
First heat: Won by Earl Reitnauer; 2. Bob Levensgood; 3. Don Allison; 4. Fred Ewing; 5. Dick Rodenberger. Time: 3:09.2 minutes (a new 12 lap record).

Try and Stop Me
 —By BENNETT CERF

HERE IS WHAT I believe to be a typical Cal Coolidge story. It comes straight from Herbert Hoover. H. H., then Secretary of Commerce, was alone with C. C. in the President's study one night when a phone began ringing. There were several on the desk and Cal picked up all the wrong ones first. He was exasperated by the time he got the right one, explaining—in an aside—"This is a direct wire from the State Department. Hasn't rung in three years! No wonder I didn't recognize the bell!" Into the phone he rasped, "What are you calling me for at this hour?"

Secretary of State Charles Evans Hughes explained: "We have just had word that Queen Marie of Rumania is planning a visit to the United States; I presumed you would want to know about it." Cal had only one comment to make before he hung up: "Hmph! I hope you'll see to it that she pays her own expenses!"

CITIES SERVICE SERVES YOU NOW! RADIO-EQUIPPED TRUCKS SERVE YOUR FUEL OIL NEEDS FASTER

Two-Way Radio Service Installed by Edw. J. Sweeney & Sons
For Direct, On-the-Road Dispatcher Instructions!

For the first time in this area, a new service is established that means faster and better fuel oil service for you. Now the famous Green and White Cities Service Oil Trucks of Edw. J. Sweeney & Sons are equipped with two-way radio sets. Approved by Federal License, this radio system keeps all-day contact between the main office and equipment on the road. Within seconds, a call is transmitted to a truck for an oil delivery or to a service car for burner service. Here's the perfect combination for Pottstown's finest and fastest fuel oil service. Cities Service for clean burning, more-heat-to-the-gallon fuel oil. Edw. J. Sweeney & Sons for radio controlled deliveries, top-grade burner service and careful attention to all your needs. Just call 4310 and see for yourself.

LOW-COST HEAT . . . AUTOMATIC DELIVERY . . . DEPENDABLE SERVICE. REASONS WHY SWEENEY SERVICE ALWAYS KEEPS YOUR HOME WARM

This combination of Cities Service and Edw. J. Sweeney & Sons assures you of more efficient, lower cost burner operation. Three important reasons guarantee this.

* Low-Cost Heat

With new improved Cities Service Fuel Oil, you have a warmer home and spend less money for fuel. True because Cities Service Oil contains more heat to the gallon. Oil heat is measured by a system known as B.T.U. Improved Cities Service Fuel Oil now contains more B.T.U.'s per gallon. Thus, more heat in each gallon . . . cuts the cost of heating your home. And Edw. J. Sweeney & Sons are the exclusive Cities Service Distributor in this area. Your only source of improved, more heat Cities Service Oil.

* Automatic Delivery

There's no fuss . . . no need to make phone calls for regular oil deliveries when you deal with Edw. J. Sweeney & Sons. Delivery based on daily temperature and capacity of your burner. These are averaged together and proper time to refill your tank is determined. We do the figuring and you just relax in Cities Service warmth supplied by Edw. J. Sweeney & Sons. And you can be sure of an accurate delivery every time. Each truck has a tamper-proof meter. Printed receipts, showing gallonage delivered, prove full measure.

* Dependable Service

Whatever your need—oil delivery, burner service, minor adjustments or major repairs — call Edw. J. Sweeney & Sons with complete confidence. Storage terminal has big supply of oil for round-the-clock deliveries. Radio contact to trucks mean immediate response to your calls. Service cars are completely equipped to meet any burner problem. Trained servicemen are well-versed in repair work. Well-stocked warehouse contains wide selection of replacement parts for all leading makes of burners. When it's the best in fuel oil or burner service, it's Edw. J. Sweeney & Sons you should call. Phones are 4310, 6092.

A quality product and first-class service—reasons why locally owned and operated Edw. J. Sweeney & Sons are Pottstown's most dependable fuel oil dealer.

P.S. If you're a radio ham or just interested in communication systems, why not drop in and let us show you how this new two-way radio equipment works. We'll be glad to see you.

Boy Scout Troop Takes Bicycle Hike In Search of Mine

Members of Boyertown Boy Scout Troop 3 and its scoutmaster, Robert S. Frain, undertook a bicycle hike over the weekend past, Woodchopertown. The group left Saturday afternoon and returned late yesterday.

The troop was in search of an old iron ore mine which was formerly in that area and they did find several shafts which had caved in but were not positive whether any of them had been the main entrance to the former mine.

As a part of the troop's ax-manship training, they built a bridge across a stream.

Yesterday morning, Sam uel Weiss, Boyertown, visited the boys and taught a Sunday school lesson to the group.

Troop members making the hike included George Reifsnnyder, Walter Burkepile, Frederick Saul, Theodore Saul, Eugene Hilbert, Klaus Neubauer and Frain.

The Rev. Freeman, a former native of Boyertown, spoke at the morning worship service, while the Rev. Billmyer, Wyoming, addressed the congregation at last night's service.

The Rev. Harper L. Schneek, pastor of the local Reformed church, is confined to his home with a severe cold.

DEATHS - FUNERALS

ELIZABETH R. (SMITH) STURGES, 29, wife of James M. Sturges, BOYERTOWN RD 1, died Saturday in the Reading hospital following a lengthy illness.

She was a daughter of Oliver E. and Lillian (Lightcap) Smith, 55 South Chestnut street, Boyertown, and was a member of St. Joseph's (Hill) Lutheran church.

Surviving besides her husband and parents are a daughter, Judy Barbara and a son, Gregory Allen, both at home; a brother, Kenneth, 55 South Chestnut street, Boyertown.

Services will be held Wednesday at 10:30 a. m., from the Linwood W. Ott funeral home, 111 North Reading avenue, Boyertown. The Rev. Luther Lee Lengel, pastor of St. Joseph's (Hill) Lutheran church, will officiate.

Interment will be made in Fairview cemetery, Boyertown.

FRANCIS H. SMITH, 82, retired cemetery custodian of SASSAMANSVILLE, died late Saturday night in Pottstown hospital.

He was a lifelong resident of New Hanover township, a son of the late Reuben and Rebecca (Houck) Smith and resided for many years at the Alice Schooley residence.

Besides his work as caretaker of the three cemeteries in Sassa-mansville, he was also employed as a fireman for more than 40 years in the Stanley Bauman apple butter factory in Sassa-mansville. During those 40 years, he was also a member of the church consistory of Sassa-mans Reformed church and was active in its Sunday school and also in St. Paul's Lutheran Sunday school, Sassa-mansville.

He was a charter member of Washington Camp 474, POS of A, Sassa-mansville and also a member of the following: New Hanover Council 976 FPA; New Hanover Beneficial association; Pleasant Run Beneficial association; and the Sassa-mansville, Gilbertsville and Keystone Fire companies, Bechtelsville.

Surviving are two brothers: John H., Allentown, and Irvin H., Allentown Route 3.

Services will be held from Sassa-mans Reformed church on Wednesday at 2 p. m., with the Rev. Wilmer C. Mantz, pastor, assisted by the Rev. William L. Shaud, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church, Sassa-mansville, officiating.

Interment will be made in St. Paul's Lutheran cemetery in charge of the Schwenk funeral home, 124 West Philadelphia avenue, Boyertown.

Friendship Riggings Back 'Home' Again

All the fire fighting apparatus of the Friendship Hook and Ladder company, Boyertown, and the Boyertown Lions Community ambulance are back once again in their own building in the Friendship company building following some improvements in and about the building.

The entire front of the "Hooks" building was resurfaced with new concrete and the apparatus room was repainted and redecorated.

During the interval in which the work was being accomplished, it was necessary to house the fire fighting equipment at other points throughout the borough.

Officers of the fire company and the ambulance corporation were very grateful to the various organizations and businesses who housed their equipment during the project.

Adult Bible Class Committees Named

Willard Trethewey, president of the Adult Bible class of St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Sunday school, Boyertown, named several committees during the Sunday school hour yesterday morning.

Joint School Board Head Succumbs in Hospital

Henry White of Birchrunville, president of the Vincent Township's Joint school board and active in school affairs for many years, died yesterday in Phoenixville hospital, where he had been a patient one week.

The 45-year-old White was born in Philadelphia, a son of the late Dr. C. Y. and Emily (Sherwood) White. He was graduated from Germantown High school and in 1930 received a degree from the University of Pennsylvania. He was a member of Delta Phi fraternity while at the university.

White was employed in the heating division of the Pierce-Phelps corporation in Philadelphia until 1940, when he moved to Birchrunville, where he operated a dairy farm.

He was a member of the West Vincent school board for ten years, serving as secretary for five years, and had been president for the past three years. He was an active member of the board which erected a new school for the townships.

He was a member of the Church of St. Andrew, West Vincent, and a vestryman of the church since its reopening in 1950. He also was a member of the Ludwig's corner Horse Show association.

Survivors Include His Widow, Mrs. Sarah (Schwartz) White, two sons, Sherwood and Harry, both at home; an aunt, Mrs. Sarah V. Sherwood, Germantown; a nephew, C. Y. White 4th, serving with the armed forces in Korea, and a niece, Gulienna Penn-Gaskell White, New York City.

Funeral services will be Wednesday at 2 p. m. at the Church of St. Andrew, with the Rev. Kenneth Werner, pastor, officiating. Interment will be private. Funeral arrangements are in charge of the A. C. Bishop Funeral home, 310 Main street, Phoenixville.

SUN RAY FEATURE

Always take a mild pure-vegetable laxative rather than harsh, jolting ones. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets combine three of the most effective yet gentle vegetable laxatives in one tiny tablet—ingredients praised for years by highest medical authorities for constipation.

One of the laxatives in Olive Tablets activates the small intestine. The other two stimulate the large intestine. In this way Olive Tablets clean out poisonous waste and gassy bloating from entire intestinal tract to help you feel just fine. Olive Tablets give more "natural-like" movements, too! No purging! No griping!

15 Brownies Ready To Enter Scouting

COLLEGEVILLE—Mrs. Donald Yerkes, Corr. Phone Schwenksville 4972, Kenneth Wanner, Del. Phone Collegeville 5042.

A joint meeting of Collegeville Girl Scout Troop 46 and Brownie Troop 62 will be held tonight at 7 o'clock in the Hendricks Memorial building at which time 15 members of the Brownie troop will "fly up" into scouting.

Mrs. Dean Hess and Mrs. Donald Baker leaders in both groups will conduct the ceremony in which the following Brownies will participate: Nancy Weeks, Janet Lou Hess, Judy Zeigler, Ellen Yost, Judy Hartz, Patsey Hayes, Bonnie Cressman, Kathleen Dolman, Marion Lee Walsh, Linda Pano-coast, Lynn Leber, Georgene Komarc, Joan Kelley, Donna Hunsicker and Joanne Horvath.

Mrs. Kathryn Moyer and Mrs. Claude T. Moyer Sr., of Collegeville and Mrs. S. Louis Cornish and Mrs. Mabel Gabel of Spring Mount attended a meeting of the auxiliary of the Mt. Airy seminary held in the seminary chapel.

Let Your Money Work For You

You work pretty hard for your money. Let some of it work for you. A savings account in The National Bank of Pottstown not only pays dividends in peace of mind, but pays interest.

Why not put a portion of all you earn into a savings account today. That's the way to provide for tomorrow.

One hour free parking in our garage at 216 King Street when doing business at the bank. Your car is parked by an attendant—no charge—no tipping.

VFW Names Seven To Commence Plans For Christmas Party

Plans are underway for the annual Christmas party sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Post 780. Commander Merritt S. Wein appointed a committee to serve for the affair at this week's meeting of the organization.

Those named to the committee are Smith McAllister, Garnet Nye, Henry Reigner, Emery Stevens, William Rightmire, John Amwake and Marion Adamczyk.

The post also accepted an invitation to appear in Pottstown's Armistice Day parade which is under the auspices of the American Legion.

On Nov. 18, the post will entertain the Montgomery County Council of Veterans of Foreign Wars. The auxiliary of the county organization will meet in Pottstown library and the post members will meet in the post home.

Captains have been named to lead the two teams in the annual membership drive which started Oct. 1. Heading the gray team will be Rightmire, senior vice commander, while the blue team will be under the leadership of Nye, post quartermaster.

The next meeting will be held Nov. 12 instead of the fourth Thursday of the month, which is Thanksgiving. Wien was in charge of the meeting.

Governor Fine Talks On State's Economy

HARRISBURG, Oct. 25 — Gov. John S. Fine declared that Pennsylvania is in the midst of an "economic renaissance" which is sowing the seeds of great opportunity.

The Governor, in a speech before the Keystone Building Contractors association, offered all Commonwealth facilities to aid in continuing the rebirth of Pennsylvania industry.

Fine reported that the total amount of plant expansion already in construction or actually finished recently by private enterprise within Pennsylvania totals $1,251,295,000.

"This is two hundred million dollars more than the value of similar construction accomplishments completed in Texas, our fabulously heralded sister state of the South," Fine asserted.

Lumber Processing Film To Top Builders' Meeting

A film on lumber processing will highlight the meeting of the Building Industries Exchange of Pottstown and vicinity tonight at 6:30 o'clock in Lakeside Inn.

The film is being presented by the Weyerhaeuser lumber firm. Tighman K. Hausman, president, will be in charge of the business session.

Limerick Center Church Is Setting For Brockerman-Hartman Nuptials

A simple ceremony performed by the Rev. W. Reed Teitsworth in St. James Evangelical and Reformed church, Limerick Center, united in marriage Mrs. Ada L. Brockerman and Frank Hartman.

Mr. Hartman is formerly of Cabin John, Maryland; Mrs. Brockerman is of Limerick Center. The ceremony was performed Saturday at 3 p. m. with Mr. and Mrs. John H. Lincoln, Spring City, brother-in-law and sister of the bride, as the only attendants.

The bride was attired in a blue lace dress accented by a corsage of white chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Lincoln wore a dress of rust-colored crepe with a corsage of rust and yellow chrysanthemums.

White chrysanthemums adorned the altar.

The bride was a former secretary to Mr. A. L. Raynor, Col.

The Athletic association of Transfiguration Lutheran church sponsored its fourth annual Father-Son dinner Saturday in the parish house with 100 persons attending.

Special guests were former pastor, Theodore L. Fisher and his sons Jonathan and Drew, and Robert Reis, director of recreation.

Members of the Fisher Bible class were responsible for the preparation and serving of the food.

Special awards were given to the oldest father, Irvin Bittle youngest son, Harold Bauer Jr. and the father with the most sons, Edward Miller with his four sons, Tony, David, Mike and John.

Two skits were presented by five of the sons, Bruce Bauer, Ed Gible, Robert Gray, Richard Seidel, Skip Hurter and Sam Peterson.

Group singing was led by Robert Scheffey with Bill Jones providing the music.

A quiz program was conducted by the Rev. Eugene Umberger. Teams were composed of fathers and sons. Winners were George and Donald Yocum and Grover and Bob Scheffey.

Mr. Dan Pettigrew, 826 North Evans street, attended the Wilson College Alumnae council meetings in Chambersburg, the past weekend.

She was yresent as a representative of the Pottstown Wilson club.

A small reamer that fits over a measuring cup is handy to use when you are extracting juice from oranges or lemons to use in a recipe.

Teachers present included: Laura Devries, Alan Levengood, Dorothy Barkel, Mrs. George Grebe, Mrs. Warren Bealer, Mr. and Mrs. William Schutt.

Irvin Keller, Mr. and Mrs. John Quinter, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Schweitzer, Woodrow Bickel and the Rev. Luther A. Krouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Moyer announced the engagement of their daughter, Betty Arlene Moyer to Otto Geiss Jr. at a dinner party held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Haines, 608 Beech street, where the Moyer family is temporarily residing.

Mr. Geiss, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Geiss Sr., Main street, Royersford, is employed by the Doehler-Jarvis division.

Miss Moyer, a graduate of North Coventry High school, is employed by the Loomcraft Frocks corporation.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Arrange slices of tomato on rounds of toast; sprinkle with grated cheddar cheese and broil until the cheese is melted. Serve at once.

Afternoon Nuptials Unite Gloria Miller, LeRoy J. Berg Jr. in Pennsburg Church

United in marriage Saturday were Gloria Fay Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry R. Miller, 252 Main street, Red Hill, and LeRoy Joseph Berg Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy J. Berg, 309 Third street, East Greenville, are the parents of the groom.

The Rev. Henry Kistler officiated at the afternoon nuptials held in St. Mark's Lutheran church, Pennsburg.

The bride chose as her wedding gown a ballerina length model featuring panels of white lace and satin with net. The strapless bodice was topped with a jacket with long tapering sleeves.

A satin crown encrusted with pearls held her veil. She carried a Bible topped with a large lavender orchid and lily of the valley.

The mothers of both the bride and groom wore light blue dresses with black accessories and yellow rose corsages.

The newly married couple will be at home at 309 Third street, East Greenville.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Berg are graduates of Upper Merion High school.

Brownie Hallowe'en Party Is Scheduled For Saturday; Troop Also Plans Rally Day

A costumed Hallowe'en party has been planned by Brownie troop 23 for Saturday afternoon at the First Presbyterian church.

Judging of the best dressed, funniest and most original costumes will be done by Mrs. Max Creswell, Mrs. John Bauer and Mrs. Joyce Leaver.

Leader of the flag ceremony at Saturday's meeting was Peggy Missimer. Color bearers were Diane Kendig and Susan Williams. Mary Rowland, Jo Ann Schumacher, Barbara Mohler and Gail Schneider were the color guards.

Neighbors' Club, Arts' Class Plan Craft Activities

Mayme E. Lovelace, home economics extension representative for Chester county, and her assistant, Ruth Ann Bowman, discussed future activities with members of the Home Arts' class of the Brownback church and the East Vincent Neighbor's club.

This year's activities will include glass etching, chair caning, tray decorating and a variety of other crafts.

It was announced that the meeting for the making of Christmas decorations will be held this year in Elverson. The date will be announced later.

The next meeting of the group will be Nov. 4, 9:30 a. m. at Brownback's church.

STAPLES SHELF SAVES STEPS

Keep staple ingredients for baking cake and cookies on one shelf in a kitchen cabinet and you'll save time and steps. Flour, sugar, baking powder, baking soda, cream of tartar, salt, cornstarch, flavorings, molasses, honey, corn syrup and ready-mixes can all go on this shelf.

Births

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mingione, 636 West First street, Birdsboro, recently in the Reading hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Bakay, Pottstown RD 3, became the parents of a girl on Saturday in the Memorial hospital.

To Mr. and Mrs. Charles Weller a boy was born on Saturday in the Memorial hospital. The Wellers reside at 37 East Fifth street.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Laverne Wise, Collegeville RD 1, yesterday in the Memorial hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert T. Gebhardt, 114 South Hanover street, became the parents of a boy on Saturday in the Pottstown hospital.

Youth Activities Include Hay Ride, Square Dance

Forty-two members and friends of the Youth Fellowship of Trinity Reformed church participated in a hay ride the past weekend.

Following the ride, square dancing was held in Fellowship hall under the leadership of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Reis.

Chaperones on the hay ride were Mrs. Richard C. Dutcher, adult adviser to the congregation's youth fellowship group, and Mrs. Ralph Dyson.

Joyce Haury served as chairman of the committee in charge of the event. She was assisted by Richard Frantz, Larry Delong and Marguerite Saylor.

Marriage Licenses

Applications for marriage licenses were made in the Berks county courthouse, Reading, by: Paul L. Boyer, Bally, and Helen R. Kriebel, Hereford.

Herman H. Petsch, Reading RD 4, and Patricia R. Reasner, Birdsboro RD 2.

Educational Facilities Are Protection Against Communism, PTA Is Told

"We Americans need not fear the growth of Communism in our country as long as healthy young couples are producing happy active children, and we, the taxpayers, provide the best possible schools and other educational facilities, from kindergarten straight through college," Raymond Pearlstone, attorney at law, told members of the New Hanover-Upper Frederick PTA.

He continued, "The face of Montgomery county is being changed by the building of hundreds of homes for young families, especially city people, who will demand the best for their children. 'Although we may feel that school taxes are too high, the actual cost of constructing all the school buildings in the US in one year is merely the equivalent to the cost of exploding three atomic bombs on the Nevada flats last Spring.'"

His statements climaxed a talk on "The Family Learns About School Financing." A question and answer period followed the lecture.

Mrs. John Plank and Mrs. Charles Hoss, representatives to the school board, announced that the new school under construction will be ready for occupancy by Dec. 1.

Plumbing and heating systems are yet to be installed. The rooms are being painted, materials and furniture have been bought and grading of the school grounds is progressing in preparation for the building.

Teachers present included: Mrs. Russell Cattell, Mrs. Douglas Ottinger, Gayle Hall, Vernon Levensgood, Robert Houck and Robert Kurtz, superintendent of young people's work at the First Baptist church.

Arrangements for the Hallowe'en party Thursday were made by the Girl Scouts of Troop 10 at their meeting in Trinity Evangelical and Reformed church.

They also rehearsed a play, "The House That Ran Away," by Anna Mae Moore.

VERSATILE SANDWICH BAGS Waxed-paper sandwich bags make dandy small containers for dips and dabs of food that have to be refrigerated. A little grated or sliced cheese, a few pieces of meat or some drained cooked leftover vegetables will all store well in these bags.

been retarded considerably." Pointing to the other penalties the drought has inflicted, Copley reported "our corn crop has been cut by 25 to 30 percent."

"It also has driven most of the cattle into the barns because of the damage to pasture. We couldn't have the cattle grazing in pastures for practically the past 20 days."

"We had to feed them hay and silage just like we do in winter time. This'll mean a cut in the feed supply."

Little encouragement is offered by the Weather Bureau for the next few days. Today some cloudiness is forecast with increasing cloudiness for tomorrow.

High readings today should be from 60 to 65 degrees.

CANAL TRAFFIC HALTED

PORT SAID, Egypt, Oct. 25 (AP)—Traffic in the Suez canal was halted for 12 hours yesterday after three vessels collided 90 miles south of here. All three proceeded this morning, none having suffered serious damage.

POPEYE PROVES —

of neighborhood boys who had fortified themselves behind bushes in the yard.

Popeye was only a man of straw and cloth. Heist blinked a little foolishly in the October night and then joined the fading laughter of the mischief-makers.

Although the Pottstown RD 4 man was the most vigorous assailant of the dummy, others in the neighborhood were just as surprised by the sailor figure which leaned on their doorstep.

Fourteen-year-old Walter Heist Jr. was among the laughing youths who watched his father pummel Popeye on his pants.

HORACE EBERT, Keim street

and Mercine road, who sold the boys the Popeye face explained, "It's good to see some of the youngsters carrying on the true tradition of Halloween — something which goes with the decency of the season."

"Parents and kids are getting a kick out of this stunt. Nobody's been hurt. And no property's been destroyed."

"It would be much better if all youths could limit their Halloween pranks to stunts which are no more harmful than this."

Rogers, a Junior High pupil who lives on Cedar Hill, Pottstown RD 4, was the idea man behind the Popeye creation.

Mervine residents will answer their doorbells with a dinge of apprehension. The spinachless Popeye remains in the neighborhood.

paign because it's thinking of other people."

MRS. SAMUEL H. Keiser, co-chairman with Mrs. Feroe in residential solicitation, also was pleased with results in the past week's activities.

"We've gotten many contributions, not large ones, but they all count in the end," she said. "It's a worthwhile campaign and the people are supporting it. I think it's wonderful."

Mrs. Karl Schumacher, besides being president of Memorial Hospital auxiliary, was co-chairman of the professional division drive.

"Of course, I'm quite happy to do it," she said.

"It's work that benefits people and I think anyone that does contribute to the United Fund should be commended."

Granges Will Rally

At State Convention

Pottstown area Granges will be well represented at the 81st annual convention of the Pennsylvania State Grange, which opens tomorrow in Williamsport.

Lewis B. Brant, master of the Sanatoga Grange, said that he and nine other members plan to attend the three-day session. Members from the North Community Grange, New Hanover County Grange, Keystone, Valley and Kimberlin Granges, also will attend.

Brant, who has been to two previous State Grange meetings, said he didn't believe any of the area Granges will enter the competition at the meeting.

"It does give us a chance to meet with other Grange members, hear good speakers and find out how things are in other parts of the State, though," he said.

A campaign to seek means of stopping proposed revision of the State's 79-year-old constitution is expected to keynote the sessions. The State Grange opposes the proposal, which will be voted on at the Nov. 3 election.

Pilots, Navigators Term Race Success

"Highly successful" was the way Pottstown pilots and navigators described their 250-mile cross-country airplane race Saturday that started at Wings field, Ambler.

Pilot Paul Mitchell, with Fred Riegner as navigator, won first place in the 170 Cessna class. Wilbert E. Wells and William Weiss took second place. Fifty planes competed in the annual regatta of the Philadelphia Aviation Country club.

First place in the Stinson class was won by Sidney Pollock, with Vernon Shaffer as his navigator.

In the 140 Cessna class, Alvin E. Remington and Joseph Toth took second place.

Emphasis in the races was placed on efficiency and economy rather than speed. All planes had to qualify at a required minimum speed.

The course covered territory through Pennsylvania and New Jersey, with the pilots twice passing above Pottstown.

KIWANIS CLUB —

and Summer camps for youths. To raise funds for this work, 80 percent of the active members this Fall sold peanuts for two days to High street shoppers.

They netted more than $350 from the sale. The club receives between $35 and $40 a month from gum ball machines installed throughout the borough. This money is added to the fund for the underprivileged.

The club sponsors Boy Scout Troop 17 and the Key club which gets membership from Senior High school pupils.

CRESSMAN IS NOT the only member of the borough club with an enviable attendance record.

C. Raymond Eppheimer has a perfect attendance for the past quarter century and L. Ernest Pickard hasn't missed a meeting for the past 23 years.

During part of the years 1933 and 1934 the club set its finest attendance record, 42, 100-percent attendance meetings.

Wisner is the only original officer still active with the club. He was district trustee in 1923.

Sturges is the only member of the original board of directors still active.

OF THE 25 PAST presidents, six have died and 19 remain alive. Fifteen members have died while on membership rolls.

John T. Wagner, a former member, introduced the slogan, "Attendance Is the Pulse of Kiwanis," which was adopted by the international.

Members of the Pottstown club organized Phoenixville Kiwanis in 1925 and the West Chester club in 1950.

The anniversary speaker is a native of Philadelphia. He was graduated from Philadelphia public schools and the University of Pennsylvania.

A veteran of World War II, he assisted in the trial and prosecution of the celebrated Ilsa Koch, in Germany after the war.

He has made 350 speeches in the past three years.

Current officers of the Pottstown club are William D. Mower, president; Stanley I. Davenport Jr., immediate past president; Raymond Detterer and Waverly Kiehl, vice presidents; Pickard, treasurer, and Cressman, secretary.

More than half the world's labor force, probably not less than $30 million, persons are engaged in agriculture.

ROMANTIC STORY —

the same man on the same loom had followed their separate courses until the two Pottstown residents discovered their common origin some 100 years later.

"I'm sure they're made by the same man," Mrs. Emery said. "The name is the same and the printing is alike, too. Only the pattern is different. Mine is roses and the other is grapes and vines."

MRS. EMERY last night related the picturesque story of the bedspread.

She explained that Meily was a weaver who had set up his loom in the corner of Lebanon iron foundry. It was too large to be housed in a home, where looms usually were located.

The foundry was owned by the Light family, ancestors of Mrs. Emery.

"Each daughter of the owner would get a bedspread from the weaver when she was married," Mrs. Emery said.

"This one is marked 'M. Light.' That's Matilda Light, my great-great-grandmother. It was given her on her marriage and was passed on through the family to my mother, the oldest daughter in her generation, and to me, her oldest daughter."

"I have it on an antique four-poster bed," she said. "I think it was made for a featherbed, it's so big. It covers the bed and hangs to the floor."

The bedspread is lettered "C. Gates, June 9th. L. Metz. 1832, N. 6."

The "No. 6" is a mystery to her. Mrs. Kitchen confessed last night. "The only thing we can figure," she said, "is that it was the sixth one made by L. Metz, the weaver."

"It was made for Elizabeth Coates, my great aunt, or 'Great Aunt Betsie,' as we called her."

"It's been passed down for five generations. I've had it for about 30 years now," she said.

"I kept it in a muslin bag," she said, "until I saw the pictures of the other's in the newspaper. I thought ours was dated 1832, but my husband said 1841. We talked about it and finally curiosity got the best of me and I brought it out."

"It's 1832, all right."

Also bringing out a cloth article which dates back over a century was Mrs. Fred Richards, 323 North Evans street.

The shawl, Mrs. Richards said, "isn't dated, but I know it's at least 125 years old. It was my grandmother's and I got it from her. She got it as a wedding shawl and I think it came from England."

The four main goals of industrial management, according to a recent study, are: the economic welfare of the enterprise; freedom to manage; good relations with employees; and business-like, responsible performance by all parties in industrial relations.

Mrs. Donald Rexrode Hostesses Party of Young Women's Unit

Costumes worn by Mrs. Kenneth Buzzard and Mrs. Thomas O'Neill were judged the most original and funniest at the Halloween party of the Young Women's class of the East Vincent Evangelical and Reformed church.

The party was held at the home of Mrs. Donald Rexrode, Ridge Road. Mrs. Linwood Shaner was co-hostess for the affair.

Plans were made for the Thanksgiving organ recital to be sponsored by the class at church, Nov. 22. The Rev. Eugene Harmony, pastor of Zion's Lutheran church, will be organist for the occasion. The soloist will be announced later.

Present at the party were: Mrs. Buzzard, Mrs. Jacob K. Finkbinder, Mrs. Merrill Hiltbeitel, Mrs. O'Neill, Mrs. C. Wilford Powell, Mrs. M. C. Meeser, Mrs. Ralph N. Powell.

Mrs. Paul D. Barton, Mrs. Robert E. Funk, Mrs. Norman Rosenbaum, Mrs. Frank Taylor, Mrs. Harry M. Titus Jr., Mrs. George I. Sload, Mrs. Shaner and Mrs. Rexrode.

Lecture on United Nations Slated For Woman's Club Gathering Tomorrow

Dr. John Robbins Hart, rector of Washington Memorial chapel, Valley Forge, will speak on "United Nations, Past and Present," at tomorrow's open meeting of the Pottstown Woman's club.

A native of Philadelphia, Dr. Hart received his BA degree from the University of Pennsylvania, and later his MA in sociology and economics and his PhD in psychology. He studied theology at the Philadelphia Divinity school.

Author of "Valley Forge during World War II" and "Fourteen Reasons Why I Believe in God," he is founder of the Valley Forge Music center and president of the Valley Forge Music center and president of the Valley Forge Historical society.

He is consulting psychologist, lecturer and professor of psychology at the Junto, Philadelphia's adult education school.

A member of the Mental Health council of Philadelphia, he is vice-chairman of the Speakers' Research committee for the United Nations.

Also on the agenda for the evening is the film "One Day Nearer Democracy," being shown through the courtesy of the YMCA. A World Service picture, it shows how the YMCA is helping to build a new Japan in democratic principles through its struggle to fit Japan's youth for life.

James F. Baird, secretary of the local "Y" will present the movie.

Musical selection will be presented by Mr. and Mrs. Earl Yohn, Mr. Yohn on the violin accompanied by Mrs. Yohn on the piano.

Both are graduates of the Coombs Conservatory of Music, Philadelphia. Mr. Yohn also received a diploma from West Chester State Teachers' college. Mrs. Yohn is organist at the First Presbyterian church.

The meeting, to be held in Library hall, will begin at 8 p. m.

Ghosts and Devils Inhabit 'Fun House' At Halloween Party of Chapel Choir

Witches, pumpkins and black cats decorated the cellar of the Merrill Kline residence, 625 Spruce street, for Saturday's Halloween party of the Grace Lutheran Chapel choir.

Entrance to the festivities necessitated passing through a "fun house" inhabited by ghosts and devils.

Ducking for apples, a perennial favorite, and a game entitled, "murdered person, proved to be the evening's highlights.

Last to be identified were a pair of ghosts, Henrietta Millard and Nancy Henry.

Games and decorations for the night were in charge of Joan Russell and Suzanne Keeler.

Nancy Henry and Anne Marie Barndt took care of the refreshments served from a table decorated with the Halloween theme.

Party participants included: Sandra Yerger, Suzanne Keeler, Joan Russell, Anne Marie Barndt, Kathleen Shaner, Anita Shaner, Larry Burgess.

If the veal you've bought isn't quite as thin as you would like it for that famous Italian dish—Veal Scaloppine—here's a chef's trick. Place the serving-size slices of veal between two sheets of waxed paper and hammer with the flat side of a heavy-blade knife.

CUSTODIAL CHIEF RAPS REDS FOR TELLING LIES

Indian General Claims 'Truth Distortions' On POW Talks

PANMUNJOM, Monday, Oct. 26 (AP)—The Commander of Indian custodial forces in the Korean neutral zone yesterday blasted Communist "distortions of truth" in the stalled Red campaign to woo back 22,400 anti-Communist war prisoners.

The statement by Maj. Gen. S. P. P. Thorat, practically calling the Communists liars, undoubtedly was the strongest public protest of a Communist act so far made by the Indians.

The sharp denunciation underlined deteriorating relations in the already shaky Korean armistice program for "explaining" repatriation rights to balking North Korean and Chinese war prisoners.

The Neutral Nations Repatriation commission, in charge of balking POWs in the neutral zone, is deadlocked on whether Indian guard troops shall use force—and how much—to bring defiant anti-Red North Korean prisoners to the Communist "explanations."

CHINESE POWs have attended the interviews, then kicked, cursed and screamed at the Red interviewers.

A critical meeting of the commission, set for 10 a. m. today, was postponed to 5 or 4 p. m. (1 or 2 a. m. Monday Pottstown time).

An Indian spokesman said the delay was to give the commission's two opposing factions more time to study the draft of a statement that may formally split the commission and result in collapse of the prisoner explanation program.

Commission members have been studying the draft over the weekend.

U. S. Gen. K. S. Thimayya, Indian chairman of the five-nation commission, was to make public the statement after the meeting if it is approved by the members as written.

If changes are ordered at the meeting there will be a delay in announcement while copies of the amended statement are prepared.

Nixon Warns Reds In First Speech of Far Eastern Tour

SINGAPORE, Oct. 25 (AP)—Vice President Richard Nixon said today the United States wants to make it plain that Korean-style Communist aggression against Southern Asia "could have grave consequences."

"We hope that the Korean experience," he said, "will convince aggressor nations that the free world are determined to oppose armed aggression by all means at their disposal."

"We also hope that it will persuade them to be as willing as we are to negotiate the basis of a real lasting peace."

Nixon, in remarks prepared for a radio broadcast throughout Malaya on the eighth anniversary of the founding of the United Nations, made his first broadside against Communist propaganda in Asia, since he began a Far Eastern tour.

"Who are the real friends of the people of Asia?" he asked: "The free nations which have granted independence to millions of Asians, or the Communists who, in Asia as elsewhere in the world, have vastly extended their territories and brought hundreds of millions of persons under their ruthless domination?"

Nixon said the basis of US foreign policy is deep belief "that

SEES 'IMPROVED' PROGRAM—Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson (right) talks to reporters outside the White House after he had conferred for six hours with President Eisenhower and his top aides. Benson said that the Administration would propose an "improved" but not "revolutionary" program to the next Congress in January.

Practical Politicians Assert Benson Needs Attractive Program—or Else

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25 (AP)—Unflinching President Eisenhower is much more obstinate than they think he is, many practical Republican politicians believe that Ezra Taft Benson's weeks as secretary of Agriculture are numbered.

These politicians say that Eisenhower properly is standing behind Benson in the current uproar over farm policies, in order to give his secretary a real chance to produce a program for presentation to Congress in January.

That program, and the way he presents it, will be Benson's test in the eyes of many GOP officeholders.

If the secretary comes out for fixed, high level price supports on major crops, possibly with some eye-catching gimmick of his own, he may weather the political storm.

But if he makes it apparent that he is only reluctantly supporting continuance of 90 percent parity and still believes as he has said before that the farmers ought to help themselves except in emergencies, Benson's political goose may be cooked.

EISENHOWER IS being told by legislators who take the leadership on farm bills that they won't be satisfied with anything less than 90 percent parity on wheat, corn, cotton, tobacco, rice and peanuts.

Many of them want to add other crops to this basic list.

Parity is a price level said by law to give farmers a fair return on their crops in relation to prices they pay for the things they buy.

Eisenhower also is being told that there is unrest among the

President Spends Day At Mountain Retreat

THURMONT, Md., Oct. 25 (AP)—President Eisenhower spent a day of complete relaxation at his Catoclin mountain cabin retreat today.

It was a bright, crisp Autumn day, and a log fire burned in the cabin fireplace.

The President and Mrs. Eisenhower motored up from Washington last night and planned to return to the White House tonight.

Yugoslavia Says Italian Proposal On Troop Withdrawal Is 'Hypocritical'

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia, Oct. 25 (AP)—Yugoslavia denounced as "hypocritical" tonight an Italian proposal for mutual withdrawal of troops from the tense Italian-Yugoslav border and indicated President Tito's Government will reject the idea.

The border, about 75 miles long, extends from disputed Trieste on the south to the Alps on the north. Although much of the border is mountainous, there have been reports of heavy troop concentrations at various points on both sides, since the Italian-Yugoslav dispute over which shall get strategic Trieste reached a new peak of tension in recent weeks.

Belgrade radio, quoting the official Tanjug news agency, repeated Italy's disclosure of yesterday that Rome had in-

SHAH GIVES LAND TO PEASANTS

1600 Sharecroppers Receives 20 Acres From Ruler

TEHRAN, Iran, Oct. 25 (AP)—Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlavi gave 32,000 acres of his land to 1600 peasants today in a ceremony at his marble palace. Some of the peasants—many in rags—flung themselves on their faces and kissed the Shah's feet as they received the documents making them landowners instead of sharecroppers.

It was a continuation of the Shah's long term policy of turning over crown lands to those who farm them in an effort to wrench Iran's peasantry out of virtual serfdom.

He began distribution of crown lands in March, 1951, and had handed out more than 21,000 acres when Premier Mohammed Mossadeq put a stop to it, presumably at the behest of other wealthy landowners. About 300 families are reported to own or control virtually all the land of Iran. But now that Mossadeq is jailed in disgrace, the land distribution program has been started again.

The lands distributed today are in the rolling Takistan area, near Kazvin, in Northwest Iran. The program today was financed by US Point Four funds and the Shah's land agency. Point Four contributed $500,000 and the agency $250,000 for drilling wells and building homes, barns and schools.

Each peasant got his 20 acres on a promise to make a token payment of 450 rials ($14.06) a year for 25 years. At the end of the ceremony, the Shah ordered the new landowners to be his luncheon guests at nearby Red Palace.

Chiang Kai-shek Note Freeing of Formosa

TAIPEH, Formosa, Monday, Oct. 26 (AP)—President Chiang Kai-shek described his Nationalist China stronghold of Formosa yesterday as the "key to success or failure" in the struggle against Communism.

In a message marking the eighth anniversary of recovery of the island from the Japanese, Chiang said the Red China mainland is cloaked in "the curtain of darkness and slavery."

Chiang said Formosa has stopped the tide of Russian aggression and sounded a death knell for the "traitorous (Red China) gang."

He urged the Nationalists to do their best in preparing for an attack on the mainland "at an early (but unspecified) date."

A parade of 24,000 police and militiamen observed Restoration Day and after the march a throng gathered outside Nationalist headquarters.

POPE PIUS SERENADED

FBI Arrests 29-Year-Old Blond On False Tip Charge in Kidnap Case

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 25 (AP)—The FBI, his resignation, Shoulders told. newsmen the police inquiry into the case had destroyed his reputation as an officer.

Terming the board of commissioners "those four-year wonders," Shoulders said he failed to see why the investigation was ordered.

"There always are discrepancies in a case like this," he said.

Basic questions in the investigation concern reports that about an hour elapsed between the time of Hall's arrest and the time he was booked, and that the two metal suit cases containing the ransom money were brought to the station sometime after Hall.

Shoulders has denied the suit cases were not brought in with Hall. He told newsmen, however, he "purposely" brought the ransom money to the police station in secret.

"I was trying to protect the (Greenlease) boy," he said. "Hall had told me he was still alive."

Little Bobby, kidnapped from a Kansas city school Sept. 28, was killed the same day in a Kansas field. His body was found in a grave, dug before the kidnapping, behind Mrs. Heady's St. Joseph, Mo., home.

Man Fined for Damage To Policeman's Shorts

HONG KONG, Monday, Oct. 26 (AP)—Cyclist Ng Kau paid in court for cutting his corners too close for comfort—the policeman's comfort, that is.

Ng was fined about $5 this weekend for damaging government property.

His bicycle fender ripped the seat of an officer's shorts.

Chief Warns Juveniles on Vandalism

Stern measures will be invoked against persons guilty of destruction of property in Royersford, according to Police Chief Bryson Turner, who already has the names of several juveniles slated for action of Montgomery county juvenile authorities.

In an effort to save others from meeting a like fate, Chief Turner has issued a final appeal to all celebrators and their parents to be guided accordingly between now and the actual celebration of Hallowe'en.

Chief Turner said to the parents: "We have given your children fair warnings in the past few weeks at school against destruction of property and celebrating Hallowe'en before time.

"Oct. 30 is considered 'mischievous night' and we expect children to go about in an orderly manner

have. I can only say they will perhaps be eating their Thanksgiving dinner at Montgomery hall, Jeffersonville.

"I am appealing to the public in hopes that I can save others in the future from being sent away to the Juvenile home, where they learn that the laws for youngsters must be obeyed and our preventive measures are given as warnings.

"I have been given permission to put on extra police as a preventive move, and if some parent's child is picked up for destruction in this borough, even on Oct. 30, he or she can expect to be summoned to Juvenile court.

"Parents are to blame for all this destruction going on, and they shall be dealt with along with the child who was let go to run the streets, misbehave and commit barbarous acts.

"To those who have behaved like young ladies and young gentlemen and who are known to me, I want to say thanks to the majority. Royersford has a swell bunch of young folks and especially a very

Fire Levels Dairy Barn; 16 Cows, 3 Ponies Saved

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 25 (AP)—Sixteen cows and three ponies were led to safety last night as a spectacular fire leveled a large dairy barn on the farm of the St. Barnabas free home in nearby Richland township.

Damage was unestimated but will run several thousand dollars. The blaze, of unknown origin, destroyed 5000 bales of hay, 2000 bales of straw, 1000 bushels of wheat and 1000 bushels of oats.

CONSTIPATED?

"I can't afford to lose any time at work. But when I was constipated, I just couldn't work because no laxative gave me the relief I wanted.

"Then a friend told me about Sal Hepatica. So I took some the next time I woke up with that headachy, logy feeling due to constipation. And, let me tell you, it was just what I was looking for. Why I felt like my old self again within about an hour!"

Yes, take sparkling Sal Hepatica before breakfast and feel fine again . . . usually within an hour. Or, take it in the evening one-half hour before supper and feel fine again by bedtime! Sweetens sour stomach, too! So keep Sal Hepatica handy in your medicine chest.

Congressman Speaks at Church Before 100 Listeners

ance, are going without the work.

THE CONGRESSMAN then switched his talk to the question of civil defense and in so doing shed some light on the recent arguments about whether the Air Force should have received the budget cut that it did under the Republicans.

He reported that at the time the argument broke into the spotlight, the Air Force already had 29 billion dollars of unspent money on its hands.

The Government withdrew five billion from the Air Force and as a result, "many people thought that the Air Force was being undermined."

But, McConnell pointed out, besides the 29 billion the Air Force had left it received another allocation of 11 billion.

"This gave the Air Force a total of 40 billion dollars. Under present production speed, that will last them to the next three years," he said.

He wound up by saying that the Air Force was certainly not undermined or weakened at all by the Republican withdrawal of the five billion.

McCONNELL then launched his explanation of the Republican attitude toward the Taft-Hartley law and the 19 points on the law which the President and the GOP had promised to study and possibly revise.

McConnell explained that many meetings had been held among the top Republicans including the late Senator Taft and that great progress was being made on the proposed changes.

But the progress was brought to an abrupt halt by the unexpected death of the senator.

Some Government leaders have felt that Eisenhower has not been living up to his campaign promises and this was one of the issues.

But, McConnell said, the Administration was living up to them. The promised revisions in the Taft-Hartley were being held in abeyance because of Taft's death.

McConnell said he expected the labor law problems would be taken up again in the near future.

600 Persons Visit Feast of Christ Rites At St. John's Church

Six-hundred persons visited St. John's Catholic church yesterday during the Feast of Christ, the King.

The feast was instituted by Pope Pius XI to give public homage to Christ as ruler of the world, according to the Rev. John D. Taptich, pastor.

Father Taptich said the exposition of the blessed sacrament was celebrated following high mass in the church.

There was a continuous guard of honor for the visitors, Father Taptich said. Holy Name society members were aided by the Girls' Sodality, in standing guard.

In the evening, Sacred Heart services were conducted by the Rev. Andrew Parvenski, followed by benediction and reposition of the blessed sacrament. The consecration of the world to the sacred heart of Jesus is renewed every year on this day.

The church choir, directed by George Parvenski, sang responses, with Mrs. Parvenski and Joseph Lazar as soloists.

Father Parvenski was assisted by the Rev. Michael Knapik, of Bethlehem, and the Rev. Samuel Peczek, of Phoenixville, with Father Taptich in the sanctuary.

'Keep Busy' for Long Life States 100-Year-Old

READING, Oct. 25 (AP) — Mrs. Mary L. Davies, celebrating her 100th birthday, said her recipe for long life is "keep busy." Mrs. Davies takes in some light work as a seamstress.

She said the past century of progress has been wonderful, but the future doesn't interest her much.

GREAT DEFENSE HALTS LAWSON; BEDELL SCORES ONLY TALLY

By ED TAGGERT

The Trojans of Pottstown High find themselves smack in the running of the Ches-Mont league race after stunning West Chester, 7-0, on dusty Franklin field Saturday afternoon.

The 1500 Pottstown fans enjoyed the best brand of football the Trojans have displayed this year plus the added attraction of a near riot at the end of the game. With coach Heeb Meyers making like the head arbitrator at Pannunjon, the post-game scrimmage was subdued in rapid order with the help of the National Anthem.

It was the Trojans' day, however, and even the rowpew couldn't steal the spotlight from the local stars as they evened both their season and Ches-Mont records.

Howie Bedell scored the game's only touchdown on a 10-yard end run in the first period. But unlike in other games this season when Bedell was pretty much the whole show, against the Warriors it was the Trojan defense that vied for top honors.

A charging forward wall and a secondary that intercepted four passes, handed the highly-rated WC eleven its first blanking this season. Charlie Lawson, except for one brief spell in the second period, was completely bottled up. The league's top scorer came out a poor second in his individual rushing duel with Bedell.

POTTSTOWN is now 3-3 over the season and 1-1 in the league. The Warriors hold a 2-2 rating in the loop and stand 2-3 and one tie for the campaign.

Actually, the narrow margin of the final score does not give a clear picture of how the Trojans completely dominated the game. After Bedell scored, the winners settled down to play a terrific defensive game that improved as each quarter rolled by.

Some long and accurate punting by quarterback Josh Sova also kept the Warriors back on their heels.

The first time Pottstown gained possession of the ball it started to move. Clark Burns,

Bill Kerr and Bedell rushed for a combined total of 27 yards and a pair of first downs.

Then the Trojans received their only break of the game. Sova was back to pass on fourth down and as he was about to throw he was hit. The ball flew out to the right a few feet and end Mike Reilly picked it up and ran better than 60 yards to the end zone.

But the officials ruled the play an incomplete pass and West Chester was given the ball on their own 33.

THE NEXT TIME the Trojans got the ball they marched 52 yards for a score. Bedell initiated the drive with a 13-yard run through the left side of his line. Short backs by Sova, Bedell and Kerr picked up seven yards and on fourth down Jim Kirk came in and tossed a two-handed jump pass to Milt Wensel. The play was good for six yards and a first.

Marple-Newtown Hands Spring City 4th Defeat, 6-0

The scoring drought continues at Spring City as the Pirates dropped their fourth straight game Saturday, a 6-0 loss to visiting Marple-Newtown.

Unable to find the scoring punch that has eluded them in every defeat, the Pirates again presented a staunch defense. But a pair of fumbles by the home forces turned the tide in the direction of the MT's as they won their second game of the season against a trio of defeats.

Marple recovered a Spring City fumble on the losers' 15-yard line in the third period to set up the scoring opportunity. Several cracks at the line moved the ball to the SC 40 where Gerry Renner bucked into the line for the touchdown.

The Pirates had a golden chance to tie the count at the beginning of the fourth period but again it was the fumble nemesis that thwarted the drive.

After recovering a MT fumble on the winners' 20, the Pirates marched to the four-yard-line in three plays. First quarterback Bobby Stipa pushed through the line for 10 yards. Don Himes failed to gain but Bill Bainbridge belted down to the four before being brought down.

HIS NUMBER was called again but this time he fumbled and the Marples recovered. Between the two clubs, they fumbled nine times. Spring City held the upper hand in first downs, 9-8, and connected on four of 10 passes. The winners tossed four passes, all incomplete. Penalty figures show Spring City lost 15 yards because of infractions, and Marple was assessed 35.

The Pirates of Coach Bud Cleveland hope to snap their losing string when they entertain the Norco Wildcats next Saturday afternoon. This neighborhood battle should be very close.

Whippets Down Bridgeport, 7-0

The Ches-Mont league race was thrown wide open at Downingtown on Saturday when the Whippets handed Bridgeport its first loss of the season, 7-0.

The Dragons still lead the league with a 3-1 mark, but now every team in the loop has at least one defeat to its credit.

Sophomore John Chilla led a 30-yard touchdown thrust for the Whippets twice completing 15-yard passes, the second to Norris Miller good for the touchdown. Junior Ron Jeffries kicked the extra point.

Downingtown had scored a few plays earlier but a penalty nullified the effort. Bridgeport also had a TD called back due to a roughing penalty.

WILSON BEATS ROYERSFORD, 19-14, AS EAGLE COMEBACK FAILS

By BILL BRADLEY

Royersford should stop playing the first halves of its football games. The Eagles just get into trouble the first two periods, then spend the second half trying to get themselves out of a hole. And that's exactly what happened Saturday night, when Royersford hosted Wilson High school and went down scrapping, 19-14.

The Prexies, playing for the breaks, turned a blocked kick, a pass interception and a pitchout to "the little man who wasn't there" into six-pointers.

Three plays after the opening kickoff, Fred Franks, Wilson back, hit Ed White on the midfield stripe with an aerial, and White skipped down to the Eagle six where he was swarmed under.

Unwaved by the early show of strength from Wilson, who previously had upset favored Royersford, the Eagles held on to send the Prexies away from the goal line disappointed.

The Eagles kicked out and a few plays later Carl Hassler, Prexie quarterback, was tossed for a 13 yard loss. Wilson kicked to the Eagle 23.

Three cracks at the line netted a goose egg, and the Eagle's Jansen Fray kicked out, but Frank Leach blocked the boot and the Prexies took over on the Royersford 19. Three plays later Hassler handed off to Dick Rice who plunked over for the score. Steve Finkbinder, Eagle left tackle, blocked Hassler's conversion attempt.

Early in the second period, after having driven to the Prexie three on a 16-yard run by Charley Miller, and plunges by Miller and Hal Johnston, Fray faded to pass. The ball traveled about six inches straight into the hot hands of Prexie tackle, Karl Goetz, who slowly rambled 90 yards to score with the entire Wilson team keeping him company. Hassler's kick was good.

TWO PLAYS after the kickoff, Fray pitched out to Miller who fumbled on his own 36. Galen Fisher, Wilson guard, grabbed the ball on the 35 and traveled to the Eagle 10 before being caught from behind by Bill Rogers.

Les Greenwalt saved the day for Royersford when he flopped on Hassler's fumble on his own 15 two plays later, but on the next series of downs when Fray pitched out no one was there, and Franks recovered for the Prexies on the Eagle 21.

With Hassler handling the ball and Franks and Bill Smith doing the leg work, the Prexies moved down to the two where Hassler swept right end for the marker. Hassler's kick was low as the half ended.

Wilson went nowhere after the kickoff and booted to the Eagle 25 where two plays later, Jack Strunk found Jim Bauer alone on the Prexie 40, hit him with a pass, and Bauer went all the way, aided by Miller's key block on the Wilson 20. Miller skirted end for the conversion.

Pottstown's Dick Powell scored Perk's first touchdown in the second period as he took a pass from quarterback Bill Dunn. The play covered 22 yards. A Dunn to Vogt pass good for 51 yards set up Vogt's crash from the one for the other Perk TD.

For Stevens, Jim McDonald put himself in position to score from the two by racing 60 yards on the preceding play. Joe Butkavage drove over from the three to give Stevens a 12-0 first period lead. A 15-yard pass from quarterback Bill Wetterau to end Jug McKeever GLOOMY WEATHER, SPARKLING FOOTBALL—Howie Bedell displays a wild expression (above) which is just the way he played football on Saturday. Bedell is brought down by several West Chester players after gaining the first 13 yards of the 52-yard touchdown drive in the 7-0 Pottstown victory at Franklin field. The other Pottstown players are Joe Schutz, 68, Larry Lawler, in pile, Clark Burns, 60, and Mac Shirey, 43. The West Chester players identified are Mike Reilly, 81, Arnold Steele, over Bedell's helmet, and Charlie Anderson, 72, on knees at right. The photo on the left was snapped later in the afternoon when the gloom set in and the dust grew worse. Clark Burns, 60, is stopped after a gain of four yards by West Chester guard, Dick Gentry, 61. Pottstown guard Jim Leveille, 23, carried out his blocking assignment on this play but Burns was forced to get away. Larry Lawler, 67, and Bill Kerr, 29, can be seen for Pottstown. Phil Tighman, 6-4, 205 West Chester tackle is No. 90, and back Dick Yoder is No. 85.

Domin Bucks for Point

Norco Ties Wyomissing, 7-7, as McAfee Scores Touchdown

The Wyomissing Sunsets pushed another fumble, this time by Bill like a damp fuse when Pete Meinig stole Clemens' pass on the 45.

Between Brower and Domin the Wildcats rolled up three first downs on their way to the Wyomissing 39 from which point they were forced to kick, early in the second period.

The second period of the bitter battle saw Jim Olexa, Norco starting left end, carried off the field with a fractured right leg, and from then on it was "get this one for Jim." But the best the Wildcats could do was force a stalemate.

After the opening whistle, carries by Ron Domin and John Brower brought Norco up to its 10, but a Domin fumble that was fallen on by Sunset tackle Dave Reeser gave Wyomissing the first big break of the game.

Four plays later Norco took over on the 10 again, its fierce line play having stopped the Sunsets cold.

After driving to the Norco 45,

Olexa Suffers Fractured Leg

North Coventry lost one of its topnotch ball players Saturday when big Jim Olexa, 6'2", 185 pound left end, suffered a fractured right leg in the second quarter of the Norco-Wyomissing grid tilt.

The rangy end was going downhill following a Norco kick to make the tackle when the accident occurred. He was carried from the field and taken to the Reading hospital where he was placed under the care of Dr. Carl B. Eshelman.

Although obviously in pain, the pigskin star's first questions were "Who won—who scored?"

YESTERDAY, hospital authorities said that Olexa was "doing fine," and Norco assistant-coach Lou Buckwalter, who was up to see him, said the effects were starting to wear off and that he was "feeling quite jovial."

Olexa fractured his nose in an automobile accident earlier in the week.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1953

I had rather believe all the fables in the Talmud and the Koran, than that this universal frame is without a mind.—Bacon.

Curfew for This Week

POTTSTOWNIANS who dread the arrival of October's final week, with its "mischief night," Halloween, and premature observances of the trick or treat antics, could be spared much of the disagreeableness and damage.

Fun is fun, and everybody's anxious to see the children have a happy time, dressing up and fooling neighbors.

Homeowners aren't spoil-sports if they complain about porch furniture being stolen, porches damaged by milk bottle shatterings, windows being broken and washlines cut. That's vandalism.

To insure the masquerading youngsters having a frolic and to prevent the marauders from damaging public property, here's a suggestion:

Let borough officials reinstate the curfew alarm for this last week in October. Let the whistle sound at 9 o'clock, or even 10 o'clock, to warn children to get off the streets. Then let the police department enforce the curfew!

This should get the children off the streets. And residents near borough hall who complained their rest was disturbed by the curfew alarm shouldn't mind just for one week. Especially if it will stop vandalism.

Glory of Our Days

INDIAN Summer, usually a highly hypothetical date on the calendar, has been notable this Fall for its duration. One who has not been out into the country is likely to complain that it has meant more Summer than Indian.

But the traditional glory of the season, high coloring beneath hazily sunny skies, has been present in equal degree. Anyone who has headed his automobile radiator into the suburbs has been especially rewarded. Most of the typical wooded ridges are a tapestry of color that is predominantly somber but exceptionally rich.

The often dull oaks have outdone themselves. They range from pure bronze to deepest wine, set off by enough of the brighter yellow and scarlet of maple and poplar and birch to enrich their tones.

We trust some of the cars streaming on our Pottstown highways last weekend were armed with color film to bring back a credible record. A calendar artist who did right by his palette would not be believed.

The Red Feather Flies

IT is the season of the Red Feather in Pottstown, and in the next few weeks or so the citizens are going to be put to a test of their willingness to take care of their own.

Some 350 volunteer solicitors are already on the move. They are your neighbors, your friends, your fellow workers.

They are seeking to raise $182,000 to finance next year's activities in the Red Feather's health and welfare agencies.

Meeting the goal of each campaign is going to take a good deal of hard work on the part of the Red Feather's many representatives.

You can do your part by a show of courtesy and generosity when one of them rings your door bell or visits you in your factory or your office.

The Red Feather campaigns are community efforts and they require community participation.

Let 1953 be a year when everyone does his part!

Honorable Exception

ONE reason for the incredible cost of government is that too many of us want economy for the other fellow only — and never in matters that affect us.

But there are honorable exceptions, and they deserve recognition.

A short time ago the forest service merged its Hailey, Idaho, headquarters with that of Twin Falls in order to save $15,000 a year.

It might have been expected that Hailey people would howl in protest. But that wasn't the case.

The Hailey Times said: "Naturally we don't like to lose our Forest Service headquarters . . . but the fantastic cost of government can't be lowered without some sacrifices. Perhaps a saving of $15,000 annually looks less than a pittance; but five such mergers made recently add up to $75,000 annually . . . Multiply such savings over and over again through the hundreds of branches of federal government and you begin to see some hope for a cut in taxes."

We need more—a whole lot more—of that spirit.

Funeral Processions Obstruct Traffic

Objects to Procession

To the Editor: I have no objections to paying due respect to the dead. I think everyone who dies and prefers burial to cremation should get the proper procession to the cemetery.

But what I do object to is that there should be a police car escorting the procession through red lights and generally causing undue traffic obstruction on our local streets.

Good gosh! The traffic problem is difficult enough as it is without a long procession of cars winding in and out along the crowded thoroughfares.

Besides, the dead have plenty of time to be buried in. They are going to be dead a long time. Why the rush?

What would happen if the procession went through a red light just as an ambulance got to the intersection during an emergency call?

I'd hate to think of the possible results.

I'm in favor of some other plan of getting the dead to the cemetery for the ceremonies due them.

Pottstown TRAGEDY-AVERTER

Scores Halloween

To the Editor: I think Halloween parades are a lot of bunk. No one cares about Halloween anyway.

The only reason youngsters are interested in Halloween is because they have a good excuse to stuff their little bellies full of candy.

The only reason adults care about Halloween is it gives them an excuse to hold parties during which they amuse themselves with a lot of stupid games like ducking for apples or pinning tails on monkeys.

US May Get 'Tough' With South Americans

By RAY TUCKER

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 25 — Despite repeated warnings, the Eisenhower Administration only now recognizes the existence of anti-American sentiment amounting to outright hostility throughout Central and South America. Recent White House pronouncements on the problem may herald a more realistic and tougher policy toward our erstwhile "good neighbors."

Where the feeling against the "Yankees" is not openly and officially Communist, it consists of a secret delight in looking on while Georgi Melnikov and Mao Tse-tung pull Uncle Sam's whiskers until it hurts. Next to a bull fight, it is their most enjoyable spectacle.

In his recent denunciation of little and harmless Guatemala as a "citadel of Communism," John M. Cabot, assistant secretary of state, understated the facts for diplomatic reasons. Although this Central American country, standing athwart the Panama Canal, encourages and aids Red conspiracies, a strong pro-Moscow faction exists in every other country below the Rio Grande.

Cabot should have broadened his indictment to include every Latin-American Republic, with the exception of Mexico, Brazil, Colombia, Peru, Ecuador, and Paraguay. They alone have resisted every effort of Juan Peron, Argentina dictator, to organize an anti-American bloc under the guise of a Latin-American Defense Community.

However, save for Brazil and Peru, they are militarily and economically weak. Only Colombia gave active aid in Korea, sending an infantry battalion.

Another indication of a more positive Washington attitude lies in our official approval of Churchill's intervention against Communists in British Guiana. Although a technical violation of the Monroe Doctrine, his dispatch of warships and troops was okayed by the White House.

IGNORE WARNINGS: Despite these significant warnings, most Latin-American political leaders are utterly indifferent to the great issues involved in the US-USSR struggle. They do not feel compelled to suppress Communists, unless they conspire against the ruling regimes here. They refuse to envisage Moscow expansion as a serious threat to themselves, although they would be the first to run to Washington for protection in event of imminent danger.

Another and more practical reason lies behind this tolerance, even sympathy, for the Reds. The petty dictators down here—and most heads of states are army-backed rulers—figure that they can wrangle more money from the US Treasury, if they keep us alarmed over the prospect of South America as a Communist beachhead. Our dollar loans, as in China, would wind up in the pockets of a few politicians and their cronies.

The millions of ordinary, Latin-American peasants and workers are not unfriendly to us. Indeed, they are extremely gracious and grateful for what little aid has trickled down to them.

But they are so illiterate, so borne down in wretchedness, so subjugated by hopeless poverty, so controlled by politico-economic masters and police, that they do not count in domestic or world affairs. They are peons in all but name, not citizens.

The Worry Clinic

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

ALICE G. has a sister who is 6. "Dr. Crane, I need your advice," their mother began, "for my husband thinks there is too much false modesty in America."

"So he insists that we go naked before the children around the house. He thinks it is perfectly proper for them to enter the bathroom while he is in the tub."

"But I disagree, so will you please give us the psychological views in this matter?"

MODESTY IS much like etiquette in the parlor or table manners in the dining room.

It is a product of our cultural development. In the days of 'cavemen,' they ate with their fingers, and showed no chivalry toward women.

They lived almost on the plane of animals. But in comparatively modern times the human race has advanced in manners and music and reading and science.

Perhaps some people in previous generations were too prudish. They carried modesty too far.

But it is just as much a fault to banish modesty as to omit knives and forks from the dinner table and scoop up mashed potatoes with our bare hands.

IF ALICE'S FATHER also teaches her to run around her home with no clothes on, and to invade men's toilets, she will soon be ostracized by desirable playmates when she innocently tries to do the same things elsewhere.

Good parents must think ahead. And one mark of intelligence is this very foresight which enables us to anticipate future unpleasant aspects of any contemplated new act of the present moment.

Alice's father is definitely not looking ahead. So he will prejudice the friendships and social standing of his children by trying to violate American customs.

For bathrooms are built with doors and locks thereon because we modern Americans expect privacy therein.

In certain foreign countries, as in Europe and Central America, the natives do not maintain our high degree of modesty. But they don't enjoy our high living standards and educational opportunities, either.

Hollywood

By DON HOPE

White Miss Gwynn is on vacation, her column is being conducted by Don Hope.

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 25 — When Warner Brothers dropped Merv Griffin from contract few days ago, it left the lot with not one single male under contract! As a matter of fact, the only performers still drawing regular weekly pay-checks there are Virginia Mayo, Doris Day, and Joan Weldon. And Warners, just a few years ago was known as "a man's studio."

This was when its big box-office attractions were Edward G. Robinson, Humphrey Bogart, John Garfield, Jimmy Cagney — and other he-man stars . . . Debbie Reynolds, never at loss for swains is dating John Anderson lately. Debbie's next picture, "Susan Slept Here" has been delayed again and again, during which time Dan Dailey, David Wayne and others of the original cast have had to drop out because of other assignments. Now "Susan" is definitely set to start at RKO (instead of Warners) within two weeks.

UNDISCOURAGED by production headaches during the making of "William Tell" abroad, Errol Flynn is forming another film company with his old partner, Barry Mahon. They plan a group of six pictures, not necessarily with Flynn as the star. The first is scheduled to star Errol's long-time pal, Bruce Cabot. Cabot can use the money! His estranged wife is still trying to pin him down long enough to extract support money for herself and their child. Bruce left the US for Europe claiming he was flat broke.

LINDA DARNELL is well enough to leave Hollywood next week for further picture-making in Europe. This time she goes to France instead of Rome where she's been thus occupied for most of the past year. Linda and Jean Pierre Aumont will co-star in "Twist of Fate," which David Miller will direct. The film starts in Paris, Nov. 5 . . . Charles Chaplin Jr. has asked Susan Cooke to marry him. . . Arlene Dahl has asked for and gotten her release (it says here) from her high-paying contract with Pepsi-Cola, for which firm she's been acting as fashion-commentator on a dramatic TV series. However, the public will see her on these shows for at least the next two months, since the first 26 have already been filmed. Miss Dahl's video debut was not greeted with critical acclaim!

The Skies in 1954 . . . Christmas on Saturday . . .

★ TIME FLIES—It's not the falling leaves, the frost on the pumpkin that remind us of time's quick passage. The death of 1953, so prematurely, is heralded by the annual arrival to this desk of Baer's Agricultural Almanac, that hardy Lancaster county encyclopedia of weather lore, farming wisdom and homely lore. How these almanacs and the calendars remind us that years pass much faster as we grow older! Just like they make those numbers in the telephone book smaller every year! Next year, the almanac says, will bring a "razzledazzle" sky, with a total eclipse of the sun on June 30, the first visible in the United States in several years. All told there will be five eclipses, three of the sun and two of the moon, but the total eclipse of the sun will be the one most easily visible to most residents of the nation . . .

★ ANOTHER UNUSUAL sky event will be the approach of the Pons-Brooks comet in early Summer, the comet's first visit to our solar system in 70 years. The comet will be closest to the earth on May 27, and visible to the naked eye . . . A look at the calendar shows that 1954 will enter with a "long weekend" for many persons, since New Year's Eve will be on a Thursday night, and New Year's Day on Friday. Lincoln's Birthday will fall on a Friday, and Washington's on a Monday. Easter will arrive on April 18. Memorial Day and the Fourth of July will be Sunday holidays. Christmas will be on a Saturday . . .

★ NOW, weather lore is not the only wisdom that's handed out in this almanac. For instance it says a portable fire extinguisher that squirts dry ice on burning food makes a handsome wedding gift, since it is described as "a boon to the young bride that doesn't know much about cooking." If used on burning steaks, "the dry ice will all evaporate and you won't know the difference." . . . Then again, white vinegar can be helpful to you in keeping sticky bugs, bug juice, oil film and other smears from your windshield. Take a bottle with a stopper, and fill it one-quarter full with vinegar. Make sure it's white vinegar. Fill the bottle the rest of the way with water. Wipe this on the windshield wipers and the windshield, then wipe dry. It'll provide a clear glass, and no streaks when the blades are started . . .

★ INTERESTING is this almanac item: Pennsylvania Dutchmen are sometimes prone to play down some of their more picturesque language, as mere dialect instead of "good English." But we feel that there are numerous words in this category which should be incorporated into everyday use everywhere. One of these words is "outen." Any Pennsylvania Dutchman knows that when you "outen" a fire or a lamp, you put it out. We feel that "outen" is far more effective than such a highbrow word as extinguish. Sometimes newspapers say that firemen "quell" or "douse" a fire, or that a man "turns out" or "switches off" a light. We think that all such terms are inadequate. "Outen" is the fastest, clearest way to say exactly what is meant.

★ THE ALMANAC contains a number of nuggets of wisdom, weatherwise and otherwise. A few follow: "When bees stay close to home, look for showers." . . . "A smile is a bridge two persons can walk; a frown is a chasm one must leap." . . . "If marigolds fail to open by 7 a. m., expect a storm." . . . "To improve the taste of a pinch of salt, add it to a steak done rare, medium or well, as you prefer." "Whoever brings the Christmas holly into the house first—husband or wife—will rule the home for the next year." . . . And if you want the formula for a long married life, here it is: Mr. and Mrs. William S. Cook, of Santa Rosa, Calif., marked their 75th wedding anniversary on March 28, 1953. This was their advice: Mrs. Cook—"Learn to cook a good meal and you'll keep your husband." Cook—"Learn to eat the cooking and not complain and you'll keep out of trouble."

YOUR HEALTH

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.
SYMPTOMS that are "too late and too little" mask cancer of the ovary, and make it one of the most disturbing and difficult cancers to treat.

The deaths from this type of cancer of the female sex gland are fairly high. The majority of the cases arise in women between 50 and 60 years of age, and are more common after menopause or change of life.

There are too few symptoms and these symptoms occur late in the disease, further hindering its cure.

Enlargement and pains of the abdomen, loss of weight, weakness, and bleeding after the menopause are the most frequent complaints. Since these symptoms do occur late, a method has been sought to determine the disease at its onset.

It is believed that if more women avail themselves of routine female examinations at short intervals, especially after the age of menopause, many of these tumors could be detected early.

If there is any enlargement present it is usually thought best to remove it surgically.

Any woman who has bleeding after the menopause should have an immediate examination to determine the cause.

Usually, women past the age of menopause are very reluctant to go through regular periodic examinations, but it is so important for their welfare. If a tumor is present, these examinations will disclose it and enable the treatment to start at once.

Irish Sifting Pretty After Purdue Ends Spartans' Streak

NEW YORK, Oct. 25 (AP)—Purdue's 6-0 up set of Michigan State may have cleared the way for Notre Dame's return to the National championship status from which the same Boilermakers had knocked them in 1950.

While Notre Dame, currently the nation's top team, overpowered fourth-rated Georgia Tech 27-14 to end a 31-game unbeaten string for the Engineers, Purdue was snapping a 28-game victory streak for the Spartans, ranked No. 2 before the contest.

Ironically, Notre Dame's principal competitor in the national title race was stopped by the squad that had ended Irish supremacy of 1948-49 with a 28-14 victory early in 1950. It also had severed the longest modern undefeated record at 39.

Ironically, too, it was a student who had transferred from Michigan State, Dan Pobjewski, whose touchdown beclouded Spartan hopes for a Big Ten title in their first year as an active member.

Maryland, seemingly growing in stature each week, enhanced its No. 3 position with a 30-0 defeat of Miami Friday night. The Terps' biggest foe appears to be a schedule which offers less of a challenge than does Notre Dame's.

MICHIGAN STATE AND GEORGIA TECH were not alone Saturday as disaster or close calls rocked most of the top-ranked elevens, leaving only the Irish, Maryland, Baylor, West Virginia, Utah and Mississippi Southern among the major unbeaten, untied schools.

Paul Giel's masterful performance and an unyielding defense enabled Minnesota to hand Michigan, No. 5 its first setback of the season, 22-0. The game marked the 50th anniversary of the little Brown Jug and the Gophers' first triumph in the series since Bill Garnas' field goal gave them a 14-14 edge in 1942.

Tenth-rated Navy fell victim to Ed Gramigna's last minute field goal as Penn kicked the Middles out of the unbeaten category 9-6.

By the margin of a deflected conversion attempt Baylor, No. 6 nudged Texas A & M 14-13 in the battle of the day in the Southwest. Merrill Green's 51-yard scoring run with 36 seconds remaining in the game brought ninth place Oklahoma a 27-20 victory over Colorado. Illinois, No. 7 and current leader in the Big Ten, had to hustle to turn back Syracuse 20-13. Eighth-ranked West Virginia had an easier time, running over Virginia military 52-20.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA, No. 11, and UCLA, No. 12, continued to hurtle toward their late-November meeting with Pacific Coast conference victories. The Trojans whacked California's title bid 32-20 while the Bruins, resuming their winnings after a 21-20 loss to Stanford, blasted Washington State 14-7. But Stanford emerged atop the PCC standings with a 13-7 triumph over Washington.

Races Postponed At Hatfield Track

The big car AAA races at Hatfield Speedway were halted by rain yesterday afternoon shortly after Wally Campbell, of Trenton, N. J., won the opening heat in 4:27.04.

The races will be staged next Sunday, the last of the season, to determine the eastern point winner. Joe Sostilio, who leads by 13½ points over Reading's Tommy Hinnershitz, placed second in the only race yesterday.

Sugar Ray Gets $350,000 Offer

HOLYOKE, Mass., Oct. 25 (AP)—Sugar Ray Robinson said today the International Boxing club has made him a very attractive offer to return to the ring in quest of the world middleweight boxing crown now held by Carl (Bobo) Olson of San Francisco.

Olson defeated Britain's Randy Turpin for Robinson's vacated middleweight title last Wednesday night in New York's Madison Square Garden. Since that time there have been reports that the IBC is trying to lure Robinson back into the ring.

The unofficial guess as to what the IBC offered Robinson is $350,000—for a future title fight with Olson or whoever holds the crown at the time—but Sugar Ray would only say that the IBC's latest offer is $50,000 better than the previous one. The fight presumably would be an outdoor affair next Summer after Robinson tries a few warm-up bouts.

160-Pounders Dominate Fight Card This Week

NEW YORK, Oct. 25 (AP)—The Middleweight division bustles with new life since Bobo Olson won the title as the ranking contenders gamble for a shot at the new champ, the 160-pounds, a flyweight title go and a rematch of lightweight George Araujo and Red Top Davis top the week's program.

Joey Giambra, fifth-ranked middle from Philadelphia, opens the week Monday at Brooklyn's Eastern Parkway against Walter Cartier of New York, one of Olson's victims enroute to the top. The bout will be televised in some sections of the country.

Rocky Castellani, now fighting out of Cleveland, tops the Wednesday TV show from Cleveland against France's Mickey Laurent. Castellani, moving up since he squared accounts with Pierre Langlois, now is the third contender in the ring middleweight ratings.

Joey Giambra of Buffalo, N. Y., No. 6 in the 160-pound class, meets Jim (Red) Elby of Toledo in a co-featured bout on the same Cleveland show.

Newly-wed Araujo, the Providence, R. I., contender who was stopped by Jimmy Carter, June 12, will try to reverse a defeat by Davis Friday night at Madison Square Garden. Davis upset Araujo Sept. 10.

Danny (Bang Bang) Womber of Chicago, who upset Kid Gavilan in an over-the-weight match last Summer, meets Wilbur Wilson Saturday at Boston on another TV show—a meeting of two willing mixers.

The Browns chalked up their fifth victory for a two-game margin over the Pittsburgh Steelers but it wasn't until after they staged another one of their rugged battles with the New York Giants 7-0.

Two long passes by Bobby Layne gave Detroit's Lions a 14-10 over San Francisco before the day's largest turnout of 54,862. The defeat dropped the 49ers out of a share of the division's top spot but the Los Angeles Rams kept pace with the Lions by whipping the Chicago Bears 38-24 with 49,546 spectators on hand. The Lions and Rams each has a 4-1 record.

The Steelers started the weekend activities with a 31-14 victory over the Green Bay Packers last night.

Philadelphia's Eagles cut loose with relentless ground and air attack to bury the winless Chicago Cardinals 56-17 and a tie for third place with the Washington Redskins, who dropped a 21-17 decision to the Baltimore Colts.

A crowd of 30,773 braved a steady all-day rain to see the Browns and Giants stage another one of their nip and tuck contests. They have split even in the 8 game series and the Browns hold a 100-88 margin in the over-all scoring.

A New York penalty on Cleveland's missed fourth down field goal set up the only touchdown after two minutes and 46 seconds of play in the second quarter. The Browns climaxed a 28-yard drive to the Giant 11, where they were checked. Lou Groza's field goal attempt went wide but an official detected a Giant offside and Cleveland was awarded a first down on the six.

AFTER BILLY REYNOLDS sloshed to the four, Otto Graham sneaked over for the tally and Groza added the extra point. The Giants twice drove deep into enemy territory in the final five minutes but an intercepted pass stopped them each time.

The Eagles' collection of eight touchdowns and as many extra points matched their own modern point total of 56-20 against Los Angeles in 1950. The defeat also was the worst in the Cardinals' NFL history.

Seven different Eagles flew over the goal line with Jim Parmer making it across twice. The Cards took a 3-0 lead in the opening period on Pat Summerall's 28-yard field goal. Then the Philadelphians began methodically ripping the hapless Cardinal defense. Bobby Thomason passed for two touchdowns and Adrian Burk for one. Four came on line smashes and the eighth when Tom Scott recovered the ball knocked out of Jim Root's hands in the end zone.

The Colts used a 52-yard field goal by Bert Rechichar as a spring board to bounce back for their victory over the Redskins before 34,031 fans at Baltimore. He also kicked another field goal in the third period, intercepted two passes and recovered fumble.

They left the field at half deadlocked at 10-all but the Colts put the game away with 10 more in the third quarter and then matched the Redskins' touchdown in the final period.

Layne quarterbacked the Lions from a 0-10 deficit to their second win of the year over the 49ers. In the second period he lofted a long one to Dorne Dibble, who ran five yards to complete a 47-yard scoring play. And on the first play of the final quarter, with the ball on San Francisco's 24, Layne shot a pass down the middle of Ollie Cline, who raced over for the winning tally.

THE 49ERS travelled 80 yards from the opening kickoff for their touchdown with Joe Perry cracking the line for the final two. In the second period Gordon Soltau kicked a 33-yard field goal.

The Rams scored three times in the second period and held a 24-10 half-time lead but had to break a deadlock in the final period before beating the Bears. Norman Van Brocklin and Bob Boyd combined on scoring plays of 70 and 43 yards and a 59-yard run by Deacon Dan Towler gave the Rams their second period touchdowns.

This looked safe enough until George Blanda sent the Bears on two scoring drives in the final period. The first covered 90 yards with Fred Morrison tallying. The next one ate up 52 yards with Billy Stone taking Blanda's pass to tie the score at 24.

The Rams promptly drove 77 yards in five plays to go ahead with Skeet Quinlan covering the last 23 and then Towler got loose for 23 to sew up the contest.

THE GANG'S ALL HERE—This picture typifies the defense set up by Pottstown High Saturday in the 7-0 win over West Chester. Charles Anderson is the well-throated Warrior back on the bottom of this pile as Tony Giangiromo, 76, and Bill Kerr, 29, take part in bringing him down. Larry Jones, head down next to Kerr, is another of five Pottstown players who are teaming up in this action.

Trojans Beat Warriors, 7-0

13. Kerr picked up three more and Burns was stopped for no gain. That set the stage for Bedell to race around left end, and as Burns cut down a threatening Warrior at the eight, Howie romped for the TD.

It was the Trojan's day for doing things right and Tom Troutman joined the party by booting a perfect extra point.

Early in the second quarter, the Warriors made their only bid. Starting on their own 38 after Sova got off his only poor punt of the day—it traveled only 11 yards before going out of bounds—the WC boys paraded for three straight first downs.

Lawson had his best gain, 11 yards, in this push and did most of the work with Arnold Steele and Charlie Anderson helping out.

The most crucial play of the game dropped out after a pass from Bill Greenwalt to Anderson gave West Chester a fourth down and two on Pottstown's 22. With fellows like co-captain Joe Rettew, Jim Porter, Tony Giangiromo, Al Bodolus and everybody else in the Trojan forward wall, rose up and stopped Lawson inches short of the first down.

FROM THAT POINT on it was just a series of penalties ruining every Pottstown scoring opportunity, and the Trojan pass defense blacking out every Warrior bid.

The penalty that hurt the most was a back-in-motion infraction called in the early minutes of the last period. A bad punt by Greenwalt gave Pottstown the ball on West Chester's 18.

Hill Booters Lose To Girard College

A strong Girard college soccer team had its hands full before defeating a much improved club of Hill school booters Saturday, 3-1, in a game played at Hill's Kaul field.

Joe Zanghi led Girard with two goals, one in the first period and another in the second. Tony Caruso also put one across in the second period.

Hill's only tally came when Bill Moran passed to Mike Fester who went through the right full-back for the goal.

Hill coach Bob Morgan feels that the Hillers are picking up and expects them to do much better when they travel to Blair on Wednesday. The Blues have a 0-4 record for the season.

Reitnauer Sets Record

Mose Moore Winds Up Sanatoga Racing With 5th Win

Despite cloudy skies and a chilly wind, an estimated crowd of 3200 speed fans turned out to bid farewell to stock car racing for another year and to see mighty Mose Moore win his 5th straight main event in the 75-lap feature at Sanatoga Speedway yesterday.

A big day was indicated when

Earl Reitnauer breezed home in 3:09.2 to set a new record for 12 laps in the first heat, but he failed to follow through with a place in the main event.

Moore showed no signs of going anywhere judging from his jockeying in the third heat. Moore just managed to qualify for the final by slipping into the number five spot, behind Monk Kellar, Noot Reinert, Bob Johnson and Bill Cronrath, who took the heat in 3:12.3.

Red Leshner was unable to compete in any of the three qualifying heats because of car trouble. The popularity poll leader got his car in shape for the Consolation, however, and was never in trouble as he got the checkered flag in 3:13.6 minutes.

COLLEGEVILLE DEFEATS UPPER DUBLIN, 14-7

The up-and-down Colonels of Collegeville were up on Saturday and gained a 14-7 victory at Upper Dublin.

It was the third victory for coach Bob Hackman's crew against the same number of losses. The home team dropped its fifth straight game.

For the most part, the game was a battle of two stubborn lines and a great deal of ineffective passing. But for a brief spell in the second quarter all the scoring was done with each team making the most of breaks.

The Colts started to move late in first period. Pushed back to their own nine by a Dublin punt, they were out to the 40 by the end of the period. A pass that covered 20 yards from Fran McManus to end Carl Weigner was the big play in this phase of the march.

With Bill Yeagle and Gerry Hefelfinger eating up the yards the Colts crossed into UD territory. Another 20-yard aerial from Hefelfinger to McManus gave the Colts a first down on the losers' 20.

HEFELFINGER tore around left end and behind some timely blocking skirted down the sideline for the TD. He then tossed a pass to Weigner for the extra point.

On the first play after the following kickoff, Yeagle recovered an Upper Dublin fumble on the home team's 25. McManus went right to the air as he fired a pass to the goal line that Yeagle hauled down with a great catch. Hefelfinger again passed for the extra point, this time to converted end Tom Nolan.

The Colts forced Dublin to punt a short time later but safety man Bob Opperman let the ball hit him and the kicking team recovered on the Collegeville 20.

Taking their cue from the fast striking visitors, the Dubs scored on one play, a pass from Ed Sargent to Art Russell. Yeagle and Russell both had possession of the ball as they wrestled to the ground with it, but the officials ruled it a completed pass. A pass from Sargent to Al Harris accounted for the extra point.

BOTH TEAMS tried the air lanes without too much success in the third period. In the final quarter UD started a drive on its own 35 and moved to the Colts' 20 before being halted. The home boys picked up three first downs along the way in their best march of the night.

Collegeville's next rugged test will be at home against West Reading next Friday night.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

HERE IS WHAT I believe to be a typical Cal Coolidge story. It comes straight from Herbert Hoover, H. H., then Secretary of Commerce, was alone with C. C. in the President's study one night when a phone began ringing. There were several on the desk and Cal picked up all the wrong ones first. He was exasperated by the time he got the right one, explaining—in an aside—"This is a direct wire from the State Department. Hasn't rung in three years! No wonder I didn't recognize the bell!" Into the phone he rasped, "What are you calling me for at this hour?"

Secretary of State Charles Evans Hughes explained: "We have just had word that Queen Marie of Rumania is planning a visit to the United States; I presumed you would want to know about it." Cal had only one comment to make before he hung up: "Hmph! I hope you'll see to it that she pays her own expenses!"

The gang of counterfeiters was doing a thriving business, avoiding even the hint of detection. Otherwise, though, they were plagued with troubles. Every week one or another of them was bedded with illness; they lost heavily at the race tracks and poker games; their chief smashed up two Cadillacs in one week.

"Oh, well," one of them philosophized, "we don't have much fun, but we sure make a lot of money."

CITIES SERVICE SERVES YOU

NOW! RADIO-EQUIPPED TRUCKS SERVE YOUR FUEL OIL NEEDS FASTER

Two-Way Radio Service Installed by Edw. J. Sweeney & Sons
For Direct, On-the-Road Dispatcher Instructions!

For the first time in this area, a new service is established that means faster and better fuel oil service for you. Now the famous Green and White Cities Service Oil Trucks of Edw. J. Sweeney & Sons are equipped with two-way radio sets. Approved by Federal License, this radio system keeps all-day contact between the main office and equipment on the road. Within seconds, a call is transmitted to a truck for an oil delivery or to a service-car for burner service. Here's the perfect combination for Pottstown's finest and fastest fuel oil service. Cities Service for clean burning, more-heat-to-the-gallon fuel oil. Edw. J. Sweeney & Sons for radio controlled deliveries, top-grade burner service and careful attention to all your needs. Just call 4310 and see for yourself.

LOW-COST HEAT... AUTOMATIC DELIVERY... DEPENDABLE SERVICE. REASONS WHY SWEENEY SERVICE ALWAYS KEEPS YOUR HOME WARM

* Low-Cost Heat

With new improved Cities Service Fuel Oil, you have a warmer home and spend less money for fuel. True because Cities Service Oil contains more heat to the gallon. Oil heat is measured by a system known as B.T.U. Improved Cities Service Fuel Oil now contains more B.T.U.'s per gallon. Thus, more heat in each gallon... cuts the cost of heating your home. And Edw. J. Sweeney & Sons are the exclusive Cities Service Distributor in this area. Your only source of improved, more heat Cities Service Oil.

* Automatic Delivery

There's no fuss... no need to make phone calls for regular oil deliveries when you deal with Edw. J. Sweeney & Sons. Delivery based on daily temperature and capacity of your burner. These are averaged together and proper time to refill your tank is determined. We do the figuring and you just relax in Cities Service warmth supplied by Edw. J. Sweeney & Sons. And you can be sure of an accurate delivery every time. Each truck has a tamper-proof meter. Printed receipts, showing gallonage delivered, prove full measure.

* Dependable Service

Whatever your need—oil delivery, burner service, minor adjustments or major repairs—call Edw. J. Sweeney & Sons with complete confidence. Storage terminal has big supply of oil for round-the-clock deliveries. Radio contact to trucks mean immediate response to your calls. Service cars are completely equipped to meet any burner problem. Trained servicemen are well-versed in repair work. Well-stocked warehouse contains wide selection of replacement parts for all leading makes of burners. When it's the best in fuel oil or burner service, it's Edw. J. Sweeney & Sons you should call. Phones are 4310, 6092.

A quality product and first-class service—reasons why locally owned and operated Edw. J. Sweeney & Sons are Pottstown's most dependable fuel oil dealer.

P.S. If you're a radio ham or just interested in communication systems, why not drop in and let us show you how this new two-way radio equipment works. We'll be glad to see you.

Boy Scout Troop Takes Bicycle Hike In Search of Mine

Members of Boyertown Boy Scout Troop 3 and its scoutmaster, Robert S. Frain, undertook a bicycle hike over the weekend past Woodchopptown. The group left Saturday afternoon and returned late yesterday.

The troop was in search of an old iron ore mine which was formerly in that area and they did find several shafts which had caved in but were not positive whether any of them had been the main entrance to the former mine.

As a part of the troop's axmanship training, they built a bridge across a stream.

Yesterday morning, Sam uel Weiss, Boyertown, visited the boys and taught a Sunday school lesson to the group.

Troop members making the hike included George Reifsynder, Walter Burkepile, Frederick Saul, Theodore Saul, Eugene Hilbert, Klaus Neubauer and Frain.

Guest preachers in the Church of the Good Shepherd, Evangelical and Reformed, Boyertown, yesterday included the Rev. Charles Freeman and the Rev. Cameron Billmyer.

The Rev. Freeman, a former native of Boyertown, spoke at the morning worship service, while the Rev. Billmyer, Wyoming, addressed the congregation at last night's service.

The Rev. Harper L. Schneck, pastor of the local Reformed church, is confined to his home with a severe cold.

DEATHS - FUNERALS

ELIZABETH R. (SMITH) STURGES, 29, wife of James M. Sturges, BOYERTOWN RD 1, died Saturday in the Reading hospital following a lengthy illness.

She was a daughter of Oliver E. and Lillian (Lightcap) Smith, 55 South Chestnut street, Boyertown, and was a member of St. Joseph's (Hill) Lutheran church.

Surviving besides her husband and parents are a daughter, Judy Barbara and a son, Gregory Allen, both at home; a brother, Kenneth, 55 South Chestnut street, Boyertown.

Services will be held Wednesday at 10:30 a. m., from the Linwood W. Ott funeral home, 111 North Reading avenue, Boyertown. The Rev. Luther Lee Lengel, pastor of St. Joseph's (Hill) Lutheran church, will officiate.

Interment will be made in Fairview cemetery, Boyertown.

FRANCIS H. SMITH, 82, retired cemetery custodian of SASSAMANSVILLE, died late Saturday night in Pottstown hospital.

He was a lifelong resident of New Hanover township, a son of the late Reuben and Rebecca (Houck) Smith and resided for many years at the Alice Schoenly residence.

Besides his work as caretaker of the three cemeteries in SASSAMANSVILLE, he was also employed as a fireman for more than 40 years in the Stanley Bauman apple butter factory in SASSAMANSVILLE.

During those 40 years, he was also a member of the church consistory of SASSAMANSVILLE Reformed church and was active in its Sunday school and also in St. Paul's Lutheran Sunday school, SASSAMANSVILLE.

He was a charter member of Washington Camp 474, POS of A, SASSAMANSVILLE and also a member of the following: New Hanover Council 976 FPA; New Hanover Beneficial association; Pleasant Run Beneficial association; and the SASSAMANSVILLE, Gilbertsville and Keystone Fire companies, Bechtelsville.

Surviving are two brothers: John H., Allentown, and Irwin H., Allentown Route 3.

Services will be held from SASSAMANSVILLE Reformed church on Wednesday at 2 p. m., with the Rev. Wilmer C. Mantz, pastor, assisted by the Rev. William L. Shaud, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church, SASSAMANSVILLE, officiating.

Interment will be made in St. Paul's Lutheran cemetery in charge of the Schwenk funeral home, 124 West Philadelphia avenue, Boyertown.

Friendship Riggings Back 'Home' Again

All the fire fighting apparatus of the Friendship Hook and Ladder company, Boyertown, and the Boyertown Lions Community ambulance are back once again in their own building in the Friendship company building following some improvements in and about the building.

The entire front of the "Hooks" building was resurfaced with new concrete and the apparatus room was repainted and redecorated.

During the interval in which the work was being accomplished, it was necessary to house the fire fighting equipment at other points throughout the borough.

Officers of the fire company and the ambulance corporation were very grateful to the various organizations and businesses who housed their equipment during the project.

Adult Bible Class Committees Named

Pottstown Area's Finest

Hope for the future lies in our schools. The Mercury is publishing pictures of the Pottstown area's finest, the children in our schools. Every day a new room of school children will be shown here. Save the series, and enjoy them anew in future years.

Maybe those smiles are because their owners are glad to be Sophomores at last, or maybe the photographer had a good line, but in any case, it's a cheerful-looking class in the 10th grade at West Pottsgrove school. Class members, first

Speaker to Discuss Mothers' Club Aids

TRAPPE—Mrs. Donald Yerkes, Corr. Phone Schwenksville 4972, George Clarke Jr. and John E. Hartman Jr., Del. Phone Collegeville 7576.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Donahue Sr. and Agnes Donahue recently spent a three-day vacation in New York city.

"The Advantages of Mother's Clubs" will be the subject of a talk to be given by a member of the Mother's club council group of Norristown at the October meeting of the C-T Elementary Mother's club tomorrow at 3 p. m. at the Trappe school. A history of the local club will also be presented by a member of the club.

The club is planning to hold its first children's fashion show

Sat., Nov. 21 Mrs. Vera Robinson, of the Fem and Tot shop, will conduct the show, with Mrs. James Sacks, chairman of the club's ways and means committee, in charge of arrangements.

Mothers in the community who would care to let their children participate as models may contact Mrs. Sacks at Collegeville 9001. The sizes will range from regular 2 to 14 years, and chubby and tall, thin girl styles.

Square Dance Club Sets First Session Tonight

The Pottstown Square Dance club will hold its first regular weekly session, for the 1953-1954 season, tonight in the YMCA from 8 to 10 o'clock. This activity is sponsored by the Pottstown Recreation commission and the YMCA and meets regularly on Monday nights at the above time and place.

Bill Morrell, leading square dance caller from this vicinity, will be on hand to call and instruct the dances.

This club is open to any post-high school young adults in and around Pottstown who are interested in square dancing.

68-Year-Old Killed As Car Hits Guard Rails

MONESSEN, Oct. 25 (AP)—A car careened out of control, bounced off a utility pole and smashed through guard rails near here last night, killing a 68-year-old Indiana woman.

Killed was Mrs. Myrtle Bell, of Muncie, Ind. Her sister, Mrs. Viola B. Brown, 64, Vandergrift, Pa., was not hurt.

VFW Names Seven To Commence Plans For Christmas Party

Plans are underway for the annual Christmas party sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Post 780 Commander Merritt S. Wien appointed a committee to serve for the affair at this week's meeting of the organization.

Those named to the committee are Smith McAllister, Garnet Nye, Henry Reigner, Emory Stevens, William Rightmire, John Amwake and Marion Adamczyk.

The post also accepted an invitation to appear in Pottstown's Armistice Day parade which is under the auspices of the American Legion.

On Nov. 18, the post will entertain the Montgomery County Council of Veterans of Foreign Wars. The auxiliary of the county organization will meet in Pottstown library and the post members will meet in the post home.

Captains have been named to lead the two teams in the annual membership drive which started Oct. 1. Heading the gray team will be Rightmire, senior vice commander, while the blue team will be under the leadership of Nye, post quartermaster.

The next meeting will be held Nov. 12 instead of the fourth Thursday of the month, which is Thanksgiving. Wien was in charge of the meeting.

Governor Fine Talks On State's Economy

HARRISBURG, Oct. 25 — Gov. John S. Fine declared that Pennsylvania is "in the midst of an economic renaissance" which is sowing the seeds of great opportunity.

The Governor, in a speech before the Keystone Building Contractors association, offered all Commonwealth facilities to aid in continuing the rebirth of Pennsylvania industry.

Fine reported that the total amount of plant expansion already in construction or actually finished recently by private enterprise within Pennsylvania totals $1,251,295,000.

"This is two hundred million dollars more than the value of similar construction accomplishments completed in Texas, our fabulously heralded sister state of the South," Fine asserted.

Lumber Processing Film To Top Builders' Meeting

A film on lumber processing will highlight the meeting of the Building Industries Exchange of Pottstown and vicinity tonight at 6:30 o'clock in Lakeside Inn.

The film is being presented by the Weyerhaeuser lumber firm. Tighman K. Hausman, president, will be in charge of the business session.

HAVE YOU TRIED THIS DOCTOR'S GREAT '3 IN 1' LAXATIVE

Always take a mild pure-vegetable laxative rather than harsh, jolting ones. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets combine three of the most effective yet gentle vegetable laxatives in one tiny tablet—ingredients praised for years by highest medical authorities for constipation.

One of the laxatives in Olive Tablets activates the small intestine. The other two stimulate the large intestine. In this way Olive Tablets clean out poisonous waste and gassy bloating from entire intestinal tract to help you feel just fine. Olive Tablets give more "natural-like" movements, too! No purging! No griping!

Limerick Center Church Is Setting For Brockerman-Hartman Nuptials

A simple ceremony performed by the Rev. W. Reed Teitsworth in St. James Evangelical and Reformed church, Limerick Center, united in marriage Mrs. Ada L. Brockerman and Frank Hartman.

Mr. Hartman is formerly of Cabin John, Maryland; Mrs. Brockerman is of Limerick Center. The ceremony was performed Saturday at 3 p. m. with Mr. and Mrs. John H. Lincoln, Spring City, brother-in-law and sister of the bride, as the only attendants.

The bride was attired in a blue lace dress accented by a corsage of white chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Lincoln wore a dress of rust-colored crepe with a corsage of rust and yellow chrysanthemums.

White chrysanthemums adorned the altar.

The bride was a former secretary to Mr. A. L. Raynor, Col.

Father-Son Banquet Attended by 100 at Lutheran Church

The Athletic association of Transfiguration Lutheran church sponsored its fourth annual Father-Son dinner Saturday in the parish house with 100 persons attending.

Special guests were former pastor, Theodore L. Fisher and his sons, Jonathan and Drew, and Robert Reis, director of recreation.

Members of the Fisher Bible class were responsible for the preparation and serving of the food.

Special awards were given to the oldest father, Irvin Bittler, youngest son, Harold Bauer Jr., and the father with the most sons, Edward Miller with his four sons, Tony, David, Mike and John.

Two skits were presented by five of the sons, Bruce Bauer, Ed Gible, Robert Gray, Richard Seidel, Skip Hurter and Sam Peterson.

Group singing was led by Robert Scheffey with Bill Jones providing the music.

Etta Spayd Is Bride of Richard Nester At Ceremony Performed in Amityville

A double ring ceremony performed Saturday in St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran church, Amityville, joined Etta Sue Spayd and Richard Stanley Nester.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. John H. Kirby, Monocacy, and Paul A. Spayd, Drummore.

The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Harvey L. Nester, New Berlinville.

White pompons and greens decorated the church. The Rev. Paul J. Dundore officiated at the nuptials.

Before the wedding the bride's uncle, Harry B. Spayd, sang "The Lord's Prayer," "Because" and "Through the Years." Kathryn M. Bossler accompanied him.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gownned in white rosepoint lace and nylon tulle over bridal satin. A boat neckline was edged with a panel of pleated tulle and lace scallops.

Long tapered sleeves of lace ended in points over her hands. Panniers of lace cascaded over her bouffant waltz length skirt of tulle.

Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls and small pearl earrings. A calotte type headpiece encrusted with seed pearls and iridescent anchored a fingertip length veil of illusion.

She carried a white Bible topped with a lavender orchid and tied with a shower of satin streamers and lilies of the valley.

Janet Wise, Amityville, was her only attendant. She wore a collared blue waltz length strapless gown with an attached stole.

Matching mitts and a calotte type hat completed her ensemble. She carried a colonial bouquet of white pompons.

Performing the best man's duties was Clyde Wert, New Berlinville. Ushers for the ceremony were Ronald Trupp, Laureldale, and Robert Koons, Boyertown.

Blue and white streamers and white bells decorated the church social room, where the reception was held. Approximately 200 guests attended.

Mrs. Kirby wore a powder blue lace dress with black accessories and an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Nester's choice was a wine colored lace dress with black accessories and an orchid corsage.

The newlyweds will be at home at 127 East Philadelphia avenue, Boyertown.

Mrs. Nester was graduated from Amity High school and is employed as a laboratory technician at the Firestone Tire and Rubber company.

Mr. Nester completed his secondary education at Boyertown High school and is a graduate of the Wyomissing Polytechnic institute and is employed by the Textile Machine works, Wyomissing.

Out of state guests attended the ceremony from New Jersey, Georgia and Maryland.

Afternoon Nuptials Unite Gloria Miller, LeRoy J. Berg Jr. in Pennsburg Church

United in marriage Saturday were Gloria Fay Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry R. Miller, 252 Main street, Red Hill, and LeRoy Joseph Berg Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy J. Berg, 309 Third street, East Greenville, are the parents of the groom.

The Rev. Henry Kistler officiated at the afternoon nuptials held in St. Mark's Lutheran church, Pennsburg.

The bride chose as her wedding gown a ballerina length model featuring panels of white lace and satin with net. The strapless bodice was topped with a jacket with long tapering sleeves.

A satin crown encrusted with pearls held her veil.

She carried a Bible topped with a large lavender orchid and lily of the valley.

Following the ceremony 150 guests attended the reception in the Red Hill firehall.

The mothers of both the bride and groom wore light blue dresses with black accessories and yellow rose corsages.

The newly married couple will be at home at 309 Third street, East Greenville.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Berg are graduates of Upper Perkiomen High school.

Brownie Hallowe'en Party Is Scheduled For Saturday; Troop Also Plans Rally Day

A costumed Hallowe'en party has been planned by Brownie troop 23 for Saturday afternoon at the First Presbyterian church.

Diane Kendig, Christina Welch, Kathryn Sensenig, Helen Claire Frederick and Gail Hart are in charge of the games.

Leader of the flag ceremony at Saturday's meeting was Peggy Missimer. Color bearers were Diane Kendig and Susan Williams. Mary Rowland, Jo Ann Schumacher, Barbara Mohler and Gail Schneider were the color guards.

Neighbors' Club, Arts' Class Plan Craft Activities

Mayme E. Lovelace, home economics extension representative for Chester county, and her assistant, Ruth Ann Bowman, discussed future activities with members of the Home Arts' class of the Brownback's church and the East Vincent Neighbor's club.

This year's activities will include glass etching, chair caning, tray decorating and a variety of other crafts.

It was announced that the meeting for the making of Christmas decorations will be held this year in Elverson. The date will be announced later.

The next meeting of the group will be Nov. 4, 9:30 a. m. at Brownback's church.

STAPLES SHELF SAVES STEPS

Keep staple ingredients for baking cake and cookies on one shelf in a kitchen cabinet and you'll save time and steps. Flour, sugar, baking powder, baking soda, cream of tartar, salt, cornstarch, flavorings, molasses, honey, corn syrup and ready-mixes can all go on this shelf.

Births

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mingione, 636 West First street, Birdsboro, recently in the Reading hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Bakay, Pottstown RD 3, became the parents of a girl on Saturday in the Memorial hospital.

To Mr. and Mrs. Charles Weller a boy was born on Saturday in the Memorial hospital. The Wellers reside at 37 East Fifth street.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Laverne Wise, Collegeville RD 1, yesterday in the Memorial hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert T. Gebhard, 114 South Hanover street, became the parents of a boy on Saturday in the Pottstown hospital.

Youth Activities Include Hay Ride, Square Dance

Forty-two members and friends of the Youth Fellowship of Trinity Reformed church participated in a hay ride the past weekend.

Following the ride, square dancing was held in Fellowship hall under the leadership of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Reis.

Chaperones on the hay ride were Mrs. Richard C. Dutcher, adult adviser to the congregation's youth fellowship group, and Mrs. Ralph Dyson.

Joyce Haurly served as chairman of the committee in charge of the event. She was assisted by Richard Frantz, Larry Delong and Marguerite Saylor.

Marriage Licenses

Applications for marriage licenses were made in the Berks county courthouse, Reading, by:

Paul L. Boyer, Bally, and Helen R. Kriebel, Hereford.

Herman H. Petsch, Reading RD 4, and Patricia R. Reasner, Birdsboro RD 2.

Educational Facilities Are Protection Against Communism, PTA Is Told

"We Americans need not fear the growth of Communism in our country as long as healthy young couples are producing happy active children, and we, the taxpayers, provide the best possible schools and other educational facilities, from kindergarten straight through college," Raymond Pearlstone, attorney at law, told members of the New Hanover-Upper Frederick PTA.

He continued, "The face of Montgomery county is being changed by the building of hundreds of homes for young families, especially city people, who will demand the best for their children."

"Although we may feel that school taxes are too high, the actual cost of constructing all the school buildings in the US in one year is merely the equivalent to the cost of exploding three atomic bombs on the Nevada flats last Spring."

His statements climaxed a talk on "The Family Learns About School Financing." A question and answer period followed the lecture.

Mrs. John Plank and Mrs. Charles Hoss, representatives to the school board, announced that the new school under construction will be ready for occupancy by Dec. 1.

Plumbing and heating systems are yet to be installed. The rooms are being painted, materials and furniture have been bought and grading of the school grounds is progressing in preparation for the building of the driveways and parking area.

Mrs. Kenneth Rhoads explained to the members that each leaf of the membership tree represents the family of one school child.

A check of 25 dollars was presented to the association by Mrs. Gertrude Rahn, who won the money on a television cooking show.

Health committee chairman, Mrs. Morris Fisher, distributed literature on the Red Cross Blood program and home nursing course.

Church School Holds Party at Sumneytown Site

Camp Unami, Sumneytown, was the scene of the Hallowe'en party for members of the junior and intermediate departments of the First Baptist church school.

Forty persons were present at the affair.

Winners of the grand march were: Linda Cannell, Neil Hewitt, Judy Wagner and George Pennypacker. Other games were played and refreshments were served.

Teachers present included: Mrs. Russell Cattell, Mrs. Douglas Ottinger, Gayle Hall, Vernon Levengood, Robert Houck and Robert Kurtz, superintendent of young people's work at the First Baptist church.

Girl Scouts Plan Hallowe'en Party

Arrangements for the Hallowe'en party Thursday were made by the Girl Scouts of Troop 10 at their meeting in Trinity Evangelical and Reformed church.

They also rehearsed a play, "The House That Ran Away," by Anna Mae Moore.

been retarded considerably." Pointing to the other penalties the drought has inflicted, Copley reported "our corn crop has been cut by 25 to 30 percent."

"It also has driven most of the cattle into the barns because of the damage to pasture. We couldn't have the cattle grazing in pastures for practically the past 30 days."

"We had to feed them hay and silage just like we do in winter time. This'll mean a cut in the feed supply."

Little encouragement is offered by the Weather Bureau for the next few days. Today some cloudiness is forecast with increasing cloudiness for tomorrow.

High readings today should be from 60 to 65 degrees.

of neighborhood boys who had fortified themselves behind bushes in the yard.

Popeye was only a man of straw and cloth. Heist blinked a little foolishly in the October night and then joined the fading laughter of the mischief-makers.

Although the Pottstown RD 4 man was the most vigorous assailant of the dummy, others in the neighborhood were just as surprised by the sailor figure which leaned on their doorstep.

Fourteen-year-old Walter Heist Jr. was among the laughing youths who watched his father pummel Popeye on his pants.

He liked the gag so much he joined his brothers, Jack, ten, and Arthur, eight, to build a dummy of their own.

HORACE EBERT, Keim street and Mervine road, who sold the boys the Popeye face explained, "It's good to see some of the youngsters carrying on the true tradition of Hallowe'en — something which goes with the decency of the season."

"Parents and kids are getting a kick out of this stunt. Nobody's been hurt. And no property's been destroyed."

"It would be much better if all youths could limit their Hallowe'en pranks to stunts which are no more harmful than this."

Rogers, a Junior High pupil who lives on Cedar Hill, Pottstown RD 4, was the idea man behind the Popeye creation.

Mervine residents will answer their doorbells with a tinge of apprehension. The spinachless Popeye remains in the neighborhood.

paign because it's thinking of other people."

MRS. SAMUEL H. Keiser, co-chairman with Mrs. Ferre in residential solicitation, also was pleased with results in the past week's activities.

"We've gotten many contributions, not large ones, but they all count in the end," she said. "It's a worthwhile campaign and the people are supporting it. I think it's wonderful."

Mrs. Karl Schumacher, besides being president of Memorial Hospital auxiliary, was co-chairman of the professional division drive.

"Of course, I'm quite happy to do it," she said.

Granges Will Rally At State Convention

Pottstown area Granges will be well represented at the 81st annual convention of the Pennsylvania State Grange, which opens tomorrow in Williamsport.

Lewis B. Brant, master of the Sanatoga Grange, said that he and nine other members plan to attend the three-day session. Members from the North Coventry Grange, New Hanover Community Grange, Keystone, Valley and Kimberton Granges, also will attend.

Brant, who has been to two previous State Grange meetings, said he didn't believe any of the area Granges will enter the competition at the meeting.

"It does give us a chance to meet with other Grange members, hear good speakers and find out how things are in other parts of the State, though," he said.

A campaign to seek means of stopping proposed revision of the State's 79-year-old constitution is expected to keynote the sessions. The State Grange opposes the proposal, which will be voted on at the Nov. 3 election.

Pilots, Navigators Term Race Success

"Highly successful" was the way Pottstown pilots and navigators described their 250-mile cross-country airplane race Saturday that started at Wings field, Ambler. Pilot Paul Mitchell, with Fred Riegner as navigator, won first place in the 170 Cessna class. Wilbert E. Wells and William Weiss took second place. Fifty planes competed in the annual regatta of the Philadelphia Aviation Country club.

First place in the Stinson class was won by Sidney Pollock, with Vernon Shaffer as his navigator.

In the 140 Cessna class, Alvin E. Renninger and Joseph Toth took second place.

Emphasis in the races was placed on efficiency and economy rather than speed. All planes had to qualify at a required minimum speed.

The course covered territory through Pennsylvania and New Jersey, with the pilots twice passing above Pottstown.

KIWANIS CLUB —

and summer camps for youths.

To raise funds for this work, 80 percent of the active members this Fall sold peanuts for two days to High street shoppers.

They netted more than $550 from the sale. The club receives between $35 and $40 a month from gum ball machines installed throughout the borough. This money is added to the fund for the underprivileged.

The club sponsors Boy Scout Troop 17 and the Key club which gets membership from Senior High school pupils.

CRESSMAN IS NOT the only member of the borough club with an enviable attendance record.

C. Raymond Eppheimer has a perfect attendance for the past quarter century and L. Ernest Pickard hasn't missed a meeting for the past 23 years.

During part of the years 1933 and 1934 the club set its finest attendance record, 42, 100-percent attendance meetings.

Wisner is the only original officer still active with the club. He was district trustee in 1923.

Sturges is the only member of the original board of directors still active.

OF THE 25 PAST presidents, six have died and 19 remain active. Fifteen members have died while on membership rolls.

John T. Wagner, a former member, introduced the slogan, "Attendance Is the Pulse of Kiwanis," which was adopted by the international.

Members of the Pottstown club organized Phoenixville Kiwanis in 1925 and the West Chester club in 1950.

The anniversary speaker is a native of Philadelphia. He was graduated from Philadelphia public schools and the University of Pennsylvania.

A veteran of World War II, he assisted in the trial and prosecution of the celebrated Ilsa Koch, in Germany after the war.

He has made 350 speeches in the past three years.

Current officers of the Pottstown club are William D. Mower, president; Stanley I. Davenport Jr., immediate past president; Raymond Detterer and Waverly Kiehl, vice presidents; Pickard, treasurer, and Cressman, secretary.

ROMANTIC STORY —

the same man on the same loom had followed their separate courses until the two Pottstown residents discovered their common origin some 100 years later.

"I'm sure they're made by the same man," Mrs. Emery said. "The name is the same and the printing is alike, too. Only the pattern is different. Mine is roses and the other is grapes and vines."

MRS. EMERY last night related the picturesque story of the bedspread.

She explained that Meily was a weaver who had set up his loom in the corner of Lebanon iron foundry. It was too large to be housed in a home, where looms usually were located.

The foundry was owned by the Light family, ancestors of Mrs. Emery.

"Each daughter of the owner would get a bedspread from the weaver when she was married," Mrs. Emery said.

"This one is marked 'M. Light.' That's Matilda Light, my great-great-grandmother. It was given her on her marriage and was passed on through the family to my mother, the oldest daughter in her generation, and to me, her oldest daughter."

"I have it on an antique four-poster bed," she said. "I think it was made for a featherbed, it's so big. It covers the bed and hangs to the floor."

ANOTHER story of a bedspread passed down through the generations was told by Mrs. R. Fletcher Kitchen, 123 Bridge street, Spring City.

The bedspread is lettered "Coates, June 9th. L. Metz. 1832. N. 6."

The "No. 6" is a mystery to her. Mrs. Kitchen confessed last night. "The only thing we can figure," she said, "is that it was the sixth one made by L. Metz, the weaver."

"It was made for Elizabeth Coates, my great aunt, or 'Great Aunt Bessie,' as we called her."

"It's been passed down for five generations. I've had it for about 30 years now," she said.

"I kept it in a muslin bag," she said, "until I saw the pictures of the others in the newspaper. I thought ours was dated 1832, but my husband said 1841. We talked about it and finally curiosity got the best of me and I brought it out."

Also bringing out a cloth article which dates back over a century was Mrs. Fred Richards, 323 North Evans street.

The shawl, Mrs. Richards said, "isn't dated, but I know it's at least 125 years old. It was my grandmother's and I got it from her. She got it as a wedding shawl and I think it came from England."

The four main goals of industrial management, according to a recent study, are: the economic welfare of the enterprise; freedom to manage; good relations with employees; and business-like, responsible performance by all parties in industrial relations.

Two Area Residents Injured in Crash

Two Pottstown area men were injured over the weekend when the car in which they were riding crashed off the road near Royersford.

John Vance, 17, Mont Clare, suffered a broken right arm, and John Markus, 17, Mont Clare, suffered a possible fracture of the left knee cap.

They were treated at Phoenixville hospital.

The accident occurred at 10:15 p. m. Saturday night, according to State police of Jeffersonville sub-station on Mingo road about one mile east of Royersford.

Operator of the car was William Katein, 17, Egypt road, Mont Clare. More than $150 damage to the car was caused.

In another accident at 11 p. m. Saturday, Edward Trojan, 26, Linfield, ran off the road on Lewis road, two miles west of Royersford. He suffered bruises to the left shoulder. The car was damaged to the extent of $800.

Two-Car Collision Disrupts 'Phone Service

A collision between two cars operated by Pottstown area men resulted in a disruption of telephone service Saturday night in the Yellow House area.

State police from the Reading barracks said one of the cars struck a utility pole of the Conestoga Telephone and Telegraph company, causing the disruption. They identified the drivers as William A. Swanger, Boyertown RD 1, and Lawrence S. Urban, Pottstown.

Police failed to say which car struck the pole. No one was injured. The accident occurred along the Boyertown pike near Earlville.

LA ROSA —

"And half a dozen of the other?" "Yeah. That's right."

And so it went for hours, women torn between two loyalties.

Then a nurse at Pottstown hospital was called. "I think it stinks," she said. "No, I'm not a Godfrey fan. Why don't they leave Julius alone. He's better than Godfrey ever was. I don't think..."

Then said, wait a minute. An emergency case came in and she ran off. She never came back to the phone and her name remains a mystery, known only to herself and perhaps a Godfrey agent or two.

Mrs. John F. Albright, 445 South street, was another who came out with a "for" or "against."

"I was very fond of La Rosa's singing. I think it's going to hurt Godfrey's show. I hadn't noticed that he'd lost any humility and I watched him all the time. I've talked to a lot of people and they feel the same way. Why shouldn't he expand if he has the chance?"

Unable to answer Mrs. Albright's question, the conversation came to an end.

THEN THE younger set was contacted. Oh-h-h, are they boiling! They're boiling over like tea kettles, if you'll pardon the expression.

Says 20-year-old Jean Noel, 774 Beech street, "I'm all for Julius. I still like him, on or off the Godfrey show." And her next statement, though maybe a little confused, shows the same enthusiasm. "And I think if you could actually see behind the scenes, one would be as bad as the other." Huh?

Marty Lou Smale, 21, 428 West street, commented, "I think it's terrible that Julius has left the show. The program the last Wednesday night had a lot of tension on it and the show was not at all good. Why doesn't someone tell the real reason why he was fired instead of a lot of gossip and rumors? I made sure I watched him on Ed Sullivan's show to night."

She also quoted figures which seemed to prove that Godfrey was underplaying his protegee.

Here's a woman who's disillusioned. "Julius is tops with me and Arthur Godfrey is pulling some raw deals. I used to be a fan of Arthur's but no more," says Mrs. Linwood Simmons of 648 Walnut street.

Mrs. Rose Strange, Chestnut street and Potts drive, was cautious. "I don't know the whole story but I don't think Godfrey should have fired him on the air. He should have done it in private."

Mrs. Florence Sosa, 401 North Franklin street, said she didn't think Julius had lost his humility and she thought that Godfrey may have been justified in firing him. "Godfrey did say he was doing it for the boy's own good."

But Betty Ziegler, Boyertown RD 2, is for big Art no matter what he does. "I don't care. I like Arthur. I don't care who he fires."

Mrs. Dorothy Wright, Penn Village, took us back to our original position. Said she, "I believe they were both partly wrong and both partly right. Half and half."

Women sometimes prove vague about their opinions. They rarely give a definite answer, a nice clear cut statement. They always have to add "if's" and "but's."

Sperat, president of the Maria Assunta lodge.

When he was asked he came right out and said, "Well, Winchell put it in a nut shell when he said, 'When a man thinks he has humility that's when he has lost it.' That's how I feel too," he said.

That means plainly that La Rosa thought he had humility which really means that he DIDN'T have it.

"No. It means that Godfrey THOUGHT he had it so he didn't," Sperat explained.

Godfrey thought La Rosa had it?

"No. Godfrey thought that GODFREY had it when he said that La Rosa didn't have it. In other words, when you think you have it, you haven't..." Sperat paused. "Isn't that what he meant?"

Winchell put it in a nutshell, all right, but it was a tough nut to crack.

You mean that La Rosa... "I mean that Godfrey lost his humility," Sperat said, finally, flinging the nut out the window.

But bitter comments notwithstanding, the 24-year-old youth's future seems secure. Twenty-eight hundred a week on Sullivan's show and an offer of $40,000 for two week's work in Las Vegas.

And to quote the revered Chinese philosopher Tet Lee, "Forty grand is forty grand. Humility is for Art."

Blue Sunoco Delivers up to 124% More Miles Per Dollar

5-state road tests conducted by U. S. Testing Co. reveal Blue Sunoco gives more miles per dollar, matches the acceleration and performance of 15 major brands costing up to 3¢ more per gallon

U.S. Testing Co. reports: Of the 16 gasolines tested, High-Test Blue Sunoco, the only regular-priced brand, gave more miles per dollar, matched them all for acceleration and performance.

For over 25 years, Sun Oil Company has produced one—and only one—highest quality gasoline. This policy results in a superior, premium-performing product at regular gas price.

But the proof of any gasoline is how it performs in your car. Try 10 gallons of Blue Sunoco and see for yourself the difference it makes in miles per dollar. Drive in at the Sunoco sign today!

U. S. Testing Co. Certifies Results

U. S. Testing Co.—one of the largest and best-known testing organizations in the world—reports:

"Practically speaking, the results show no difference between Blue Sunoco and any of the 15 premium-priced gasolines tested, in miles per gallon, acceleration, or over-all performance."
